Objectives and Contextualisation

- To know and understand the approach to programme music within the current curriculum: from the competences to the classroom planning (objectives, contents, evaluation criteria, etc.)
- To know and develop appropriate class designs with respect to different educational realities
- To reflect and learn the "know how to act" as a teacher through different ways of practice

Skills

- Design, plan and evaluate education and learning processes, both individually and in collaboration with other teachers and professionals at the centre.
- Develop and evaluate contents of the curriculum by means of appropriate didactic resources and promote the corresponding skills in pupils.
- Develop autonomous learning strategies.
- Foster reading and critical analysis of the texts in different scientific fields and cultural contents in the school curriculum.
- Know the schools arts curriculum, in its plastic, audiovisual and musical aspects.
- Promote cooperative work and individual work and effort.
- Reflect on classroom experiences in order to innovate and improve teaching work. Acquire skills and habits for autonomous and cooperative learning and promote it among pupils.
- Work in teams and with teams (in the same field or interdisciplinary).

Learning outcomes

1. Be able to reflect on and adapt didactic interventions in different educational contexts and situations.
2. Be able to work in a team.
3. Being able to design activities from the different content blocks of the material, in accordance with basic methodological principles.
4. Gaining a deeper understanding of the different types of musical content required for teaching in the primary stage.
5. Knowing how to understand, analyse and compare texts belonging to different spheres of thought, culture and the arts with their possible linkages with music.
6. Learn to develop different work strategies that balance the development of group projects and individual projects.
7. Understand and apply decision-making criteria in relation to class design, programming and evaluation in the area.
8. Understand and apply the fundamentals of the LOE psycho-pedagogic curriculum in the field of music and show an ability to design programme proposals.
9. Understand the learning processes and methodological bases underlying the teaching and learning of music.

Content

1. The teaching unit (TU) as a concret level of the educational program.
 - Components of the TU (competences, aims, contents, activities, evaluation criteria)
 - Planning
2. The music class
 - Core activities
 - Design of the sessions and group dynamics
 - The interrelationship between content and activities in each class
3. Primary curriculum (LOMCE)
 - Music competences and dimensions
 - Aims and contents
4. Assessment as a tool to regulate teaching and learning processes
 - Modalities and practice
 - Specific issues regarding the assessment in the field of music education

Methodology

The classes require the active participation of students in discussions, in the processes of reflection on different topics, and in the activities of teaching-learning music used as simulation.

The teacher mainly leads students reflections from the analysis of practical issues to establish key principles in music education.

Some group works will begin or will take place during the face-to-face sessions and under the supervision of the teacher.
