Wormwood subscriptions are $4.50/4 issues/year to individuals and $6.00/4 issues/year to institutions. Patron subscriptions are $12.00 for four consecutive issues with poet-signed center-sections. Free inspection copies are not available because of our very limited press run. For collectors, copies of issues 16-23 and 25-72 are still available at $2/issue postpaid. Issues 1-15 and 24 are now out-of-print, but reasonable prices can be quoted on an individual basis when and if clean copies can be located. First-run copies are now on hand for all except issues 1-3 which are virtually impossible to find. Microfilm volumes of Wormwood are available from University Microfilms, 3101 North Zeeb Road, Ann Arbor MI 48106. The contents of this magazine are indexed in Index of American Periodical Verse, available fm. Scarecrow Press, P.O. Box 656, Metuchen NJ 08840.

Because of prohibitive postal/ mailing costs, all subscribers are reminded that Wormwood is mailed out 2-4 issues per mailing. The press cannot respond to library claims when the issues in question have not yet been released for mailing to all subscribers. The reason is again the excessive postal cost involved. Wormwood operates on a very tight and very modest budget. For the same reason, all manuscript submissions must be accompanied by the traditional stamped, self-addressed envelope or International Reply Coupons.

"...seeking an art based on fundamentals to cure the madness of the age, and a new order of things that would restore the balance between heaven and hell. We had a dim premonition that power-mad gangsters would one day use art itself as a way of deadening men's minds...."

-- Hans Arp in "Dadaland"

"The reasonable man adapts himself to the world; the unreasonable one persists in trying to adapt the world to himself. Therefore, all progress depends upon the unreasonable man ...."
