Dear Professor Edrei,

Some time ago I had the pleasure to send you my ~~papers~~, you asked me for, but as I let post it by a person who - as I was told later on - would keep the postage but not post the correspondence, I am afraid the same happened with the ~~papers~~ destined for you and you might perhaps attribute to me as the lack of attention what was the fault of another person. I therefore should be much obliged to you if you would kindly advise me whether you received my paper, as in the contrary case I should have much pleasure to send you another copy.

With my best regards, I remain,

Yours sincerely
