Honourable and Dear Sir,

I feel honoured to receive the reprints sent by you and am specially grateful to you for the reprints sent by you unmentioned in my letter. As an expression of my gratitude I promise to send you the reprints of my work as soon as I receive them. In fact I have worked out more than a dozen papers in directions indicated in my previous letter and hope soon to finalise and send them for publication.

I find some of your ideas and methods quite revealing and hope that I shall be able to use some of them in my work. In case I am able to find any result in your direction I shall immediately communicate it to you.

Wishing you to except my very best wishes and regards, I am

Yours sincerely,

Krishna Murari Garg
