Dear Professor Sunyer Balaguer:

Thank you for your letter of 20 August 1961, indicating that you have the approval of Barcelona University officials to accept U.S. Navy support for your research. This information has been forwarded to the Office of Naval Research, where final decisions concerning the support of your work are being made. You should be notified of the decision in the very near future.

Thank you for inviting our attention to the proper method of addressing you by including both your first and second surnames. I trust that the salutation used in this letter is correct.

Very truly yours,

W. B. Heidt, Jr.
