Need to find a book, a journal, a film, etc.?

The computer terminals will provide you with the information you need to do so

 Feeling lost, disorientated?

Look at the plans and the notices on the different levels and the signs on the shelves

Still not sure? Ask our staff at the information counters: they will be able to clear up any doubts you may have. Don't hesitate in asking: it's our job to provide you with information and with the resources to obtain it, so make the most of it

If you can't find a document from the bibliography list recommended by the lecturers please fill in the document purchase request form which you can find at the information counter or use the form on the website: <http://www.uab.cat/bib> to "request forms"

To find out more

Information sessions

In groups, in the mornings and afternoons. In an hour, more or less, we will explain the general functioning of the library, how to consult the catalogue, the databases, the digital resources, etc.

You can sign up for this sing the sheets you will find at the information counter on the ground floor of Building L, and you can also do so on the website

Consulting our guides

The printed version of the different guides can be found at the information counter on the ground floor of Building L and in the Journal Room

Consulting our Website

Updated on a regular basis, our website will provide you with information about questions related to the library, its services and its collection. Connect to our website: <http://www.uab.cat/bib>
