The Humanities Library provides resources to the Faculties of Education, Arts and Humanities, Psychology, and Translation and Interpreting. It holds more than 500.000 books, digital resources (e-books and e-journals), sheet music, videos and DVDs, CDs, maps, aerial photographs and titles of journal. There are collections in all these subject areas: art, archaeology, anthropology, education, East Asian studies, philology, philosophy, geography, history, musicology, literature, psychology, translation and interpreting.

BUILDINGS: The Library has two buildings:

Library (Building L): where you will find books, audiovisual documents, manuscripts and maps

- Floor 0. Loan service, self-service machine and return drop box, UAB Map Library, Pere Calders Space, cloakroom and mini-bar.
- Floor 1. Books on philosophy, psychology, religion, education, science, social science, anthropology, geography, archaeology and history.
- Floor 2. Books on art, photography, philology, languages, literature, primary education textbooks and children's books.
- Floor 3. Books on music, theatre, cinema, games and sport. Sheet music. Egiptology. East Asian studies. Language learning books and specialized dictionaries. Personal collections.

Journals Room and Open Labs Humanities (Building B) where you will find:

- The Journal Room has a collection of almost 3,000 paper magazine titles specializing in the Humanities and Social Sciences. It has a capacity of 230 places, and currently its reading room functions as a multipurpose space where various activities can be carried out. The Room has ceased to be a space of silence and collaborative work is promoted there.
- The Digital Lab of the UAB Open Labs: an open laboratory where researchers, students, citizens and companies collaborate to co-create knowledge and find solutions to respond to social needs. Contact: openlabs@uab.cat

SERVICES: You will find the services available in the Service Charter: <ddd.uab.cat/record/165794>

Library search engine

To locate documents and access the collection of electronic resources, consult the Finder at <https://www.uab.cat/ca/biblioteques>. You can consult the recommended bibliography by searching for the name of the subject, code or teacher who teaches it. You can access the UAB's electronic resources with the search engine or browse the internet and use the ARE+ extension: Lean Library.

You have at your disposal the UAB loan: loan of documents from the UAB libraries and the PUC loan: Loan of documents from Catalan university libraries and the Library of Catalonia (PUC). You can request the documents via the web, through the CCUC (Collective Catalog of the Universities of Catalonia) or in person at the library where the documents belong (On-site loan)

Laptops Loan: the Library lends laptops for a period of one day to use in any area of the UAB. More information at: Rules for the use of laptop computers in the UAB libraries.

Obtaining documents If you need documents that are not part of the UAB Library Service and are not covered by the Consortium Loan (PUC), you can obtain them through Interlibrary Loan.

Training sessions on library resources and services in order to encourage the acquisition of digital skills. We offer several courses to make the library's resources known: Know your library; Search and management of Information in a specific subject; Tools and services to carry out your academic work, among others.

Online Support Service: Request it through this form Pregunt@, and an expert librarian will contact you to schedule an appointment.
