

Communication Library and General Newspaper Archives, terms of use for lockers

1. In order to use the lockers, users are requested to borrow the key at the Information Desk on the ground floor with their library membership card. At the end of the loan period users have to return the key at the same desk
2. Lockers are available daily: from 8.30 to 20.45
3. In the event of belated return of the key, the library membership card will be blocked during one day for every day of delay.
4. Objects placed in the lockers must be removed prior to the Library's closing time. Otherwise, the objects shall be removed by the Library's personnel.
5. In the event of key loss, users are advised to inform the Information Desk on the ground floor.
6. It is not permitted to store food and switched-on mobile phones inside the lockers.
7. The Library will not be held responsible for any objects placed in the lockers.

All users are responsible for keeping lockers in perfect condition as well as for complying with the Library's regulations on lockers so that everybody can benefit from this service.
