FLOOR-2
UAB Study Room

The Social Sciences Library collection specializes in thematic areas such as Law, Economics, Politics, Sociology, Tourism, and Prevention and Integral Safety and Security. Use the Search Tool (<https://www.uab.cat/en/libraries>) to explore the book collection, check its location and availability, and see whether items are available in print or digital format.

Books

Most of the printed book collection, located on floors 0 and -2, is freely accessible. It is arranged according to the Universal Decimal Classification (UDC) and, for monographs on economics, according to the classification of the American Economic Association (AEA):

- On floor 0 you will find specialized books, reference Works and law codes.
- On floor -2 you will find handbooks and recommended reading lists.

Through the Search Tool you can also consult and read the e-books subscribed to by the UAB Libraries Service. To access them, you must log in with your NIU and password.

Periodicals

Most printed journals, located on floor 0 (C. Socials – Revistes sala), are freely accessible. They are arranged alphabetically by title and cannot be borrowed. You can consult the alphabetical distribution map, available in the room and on the shelves.

The Search Tool also provides access to the full collection of electronic journals. To access them, you must log in with your NIU and password

Statistical Archive

The Statistical Archive is a section specialised in statistics and statistical resources across various fields: economics, finance, demographics, healthcare, culture, environment, tourism, agriculture, etc. The archive is located in a separate area on the ground floor (floor 0) of the Social Sciences Library, next to the Periodicals Room, with another section in the Library's Depository.

The archive includes:

- Periodicals and monographs containing statistical data in print, microform, and digital formats: the organisation on the shelves follows the Universal Decimal Classification (UDC).
- Annual reports or publications from companies, banks, and savings institutions in both print and digital formats: the organisation of annual reports from companies follows a classification system based on economic activity according to the SIC (Standard Industrial Classification). Financial entities are organised using a sequential numbering system.

This special collection is complemented by the business documentation collection from the UAB Digital Document Repository.

- Databases: some with local access and most available via the Internet.

Restricted access collection

Part of the collection is not freely accessible and can be requested through the Search Tool. The requested documents must be collected at the information desk on floor 0:

- Documents located at C. Socials – Dipòsit llibres: Most books can be reserved and borrowed. Other documents are not available for loan, but may be consulted on-site upon prior reservation
- Carandell Economic Lybrary (C. Socials-Carandell): These documents are not available for loan and can only be consulted upon request. For more information, please visit Carandell Economic Library website.
- Reserve collection:

A collection on several subjects located in the C. Socials-Dipòsit llibres, mainly comprising works from 1801 to 1939, as well as the Piquer i Jover Collection, which focuses on child protection and youth crime during the Franco regime.

A bibliographic collection of particular interest, including legal documents published before 1801 (Antiquarian), located in the Carandell Economics Library
