EASIT Training Program for Experts in Easy-to-Understand (E2U) Subtitles

EASIT (Easy Access for Social Inclusion Training) is an Erasmus + funded project that aims to create curricula and open educational resources for the training of experts in easy-to-understand (E2U) subtitles, experts in E2U audio description and E2U audiovisual journalism. These three professional profiles were recognized during Intellectual Output (IO) 3 based on the outcomes of the two previous IOs. IO3 developed skills cards for each of these professional profiles. It was shown that the three profiles share a wide set of skills and only differ from each other regarding the specialization. For that reason, IO4 has developed three university curricula for the training of the three expert profiles mentioned above. The three programs contain the same modules, with the exception of one specialization module that is specifically for each expert profile.

Each curriculum has a workload of 30 ECTS credits.

The workload of one ECTS credits lies between 25 and 30 hours. In EASIT we have decided to design the curricula having the minimum of hours (25) as an equivalent for one ECTS. Nevertheless, this equivalence may apply for some universities in Europe, but nor for all of them. For that reason, these curricula designs are recommendation and can be adapted to the standards implemented in every country.

General Objectives for the EASIT Training Program for Experts in Easy-to-Understand Subtitles

This EASIT Training Program will train experts in creating, adapting and validating E2U subtitles. Students with theoretical knowledge and practical skills in intralingual and/or interlingual subtitling will be introduced into the notions of media accessibility and E2U language. This introduction is followed by a training phase where the students learn to merge these new theoretical and practical competences with their subtitling skills. Moreover, students should be able to apply their training in media accessibility and E2U language to other scenarios of accessible communication and audiovisual translation.

The most significant distinctive feature of the EASIT Training Program for Experts in E2U Subtitling is its innovative approach in merging two accessibility services: E2U language and subtitling.

The EASIT Training Program for Experts in Easy-to-understand Subtitling does not integrate credits for subtitling theory and practice. Students have to bring with them this theoretical knowledge and practical experience in order to successfully complete this course. Nevertheless, they are not fixed prerequisites to enter the program. This would give the institutions more freedom to decide how to integrate this course and its modules into already existing curricula that offer credits in subtitling. Students would have more flexibility when planning their schedule. Furthermore, not setting previous knowledge and practice in subtitling as prerequisites makes EASIT’s interaction with other Erasmus+ projects easier.

In case a student is interested in this EASIT training program and does not have previous knowledge or experience in subtitling, they can acquire them through various ways. More information about this can be found in the EASIT IO4 Final Report in chapter 4.1.

More detailed information about this curriculum can be found in the EASIT IO4 Final Report.

- Assess the role of end users in the creation, adaptation and validation process of E2U subtitles.
- Demonstrate an understanding in the necessity of further research and experimentation for the development of the professional field of E2U subtitles.

Career Opportunities
Graduates will be qualified as experts in easy-to-understand subtitles

ECTS Credits
30

Entry Requirements
Recommendation: Theoretical knowledge and/or practical experience in intralingual/interlingual subtitling.

Institutions have the freedom to follow this recommendation. Scenarios where the students acquire these competences parallel to this curriculum are also possible.

Module EASIT-E2U-S-1 Media Accessibility (9 ECTS)

Overview
This module serves as an introduction into media accessibility. Students will start discussing the notions of human diversity, disability accessibility and universal design. They will be learning about its historical evolution, legislation and guidelines. This is the foundation for covering the topic of media accessibility and media accessibility services. Students will learn about the importance of this topic and its applicable scenarios.

Workload: 225 hours (Recommendation: In class: 81 hours/Individual working hours: 144 hours)

Total of module credits: 9

Learning Outcomes
After successful completion of this module, it is expected that students are able to...
● Describe the notions and historical evolution of human diversity, universal design, disability and accessibility, and media accessibility.

● Explain social and contextual implications of human diversity.

● Distinguish between different disability models.

● Identify diverse users’ needs.

● Describe current national and international legislation regarding media accessibility.

● Define an audiovisual text.

● Apply current standards of media accessibility.

● Classify different kinds of media accessibility services according to their applicability in different scenarios, such as pre-recorded and live subtitling, Subtitling for the Deaf and Hard-of-hearing (SDH), audio subtitling, audio description, sign language interpreting, etc.

Teaching Contents

- Human diversity, its historical evolution and social and contextual implications

- Disability models, its historical evolution, and the language they use

- Notion of accessibility and its historical evolution

- National and international legislation about accessibility

- Universal design
- User needs
- Proactive, user-centered, and participatory approaches to design
- Audiovisual texts
- Media accessibility
- National and international legislation and standards of media accessibility
- Different kinds of media accessibility services (pre-recorded and live subtitling, Subtitling for the Deaf and Hard-of-hearing (SDH), audio description, audio subtitling, sign language interpreting, etc.)

Methods of teaching/learning

Recommendations of teaching and learning methods:

- Lectures
- Seminars with discussions
- Slide presentations and oral presentations
- Students’ presentations
- Question and answer sessions, group discussion
- Evaluation of existing accessibility services, etc.

Prerequisites

None.

Assessment
Formative and summative assessment

Recommendations for assessment:

- Written exam
- Written paper
- Poster presentation
- Oral presentation.

EASIT IO4 Reading List (see Appendix V)
Module EASIT-E2U-S-2 Easy-to-understand language (9 ECTS)

Overview

This module serves as an introduction into the notion of E2U language. Students will be learning about different types of linguistic comprehensibility enhancement, especially Easy-to-read (E2R) and Plain Language (PL). They will be discussing about their distinctive features, applicable scenarios, national and international legislations and standards, guidelines and end users. Students will also have the opportunity to create/adapt/validate texts written in E2U language. As far as possible, the students will have contact with end users, either in discussion rounds or per videos and tutorials showing how to interact with end users.

Workload: 225 hours (Recommendation: In class: 81 hours/Individual working hours: 144 hours)

Total of module credits: 9

Learning Outcomes
After successful completion of this module, it is expected that students are able to...

- Describe the notion of E2U language and its national and international legal situation.
- Distinguish between different kinds of linguistic comprehensibility enhancement services and modalities and their applicable scenarios, especially Easy-to-read (E2R) and Plain Language (PL).
- Evaluate different E2U language standards and guidelines.
- Apply E2U language standards and guidelines while creating/adapting/validating E2U texts and keeping in mind the target situation and target audience.
- Integrate end users when needed in the creating/adapting/validating process of E2U texts.
- Format E2U texts visually using images and paratextual elements according to E2U principles.

Teaching Contents

- Notion of E2U language
- Linguistic comprehensibility enhancement services and modalities especially Easy-to-read (E2R) and Plain Language (PL)
- National and international legislation of E2U language
- National and international guidelines and standards of E2U language
- Creation of texts written in E2U language
- Adaption of texts into E2U language
- Validation of texts according to different types of validation processes: Validation of the comprehension and comprehensibility of texts in E2U language
- Role and constraints of end-users participation in the processes of creating E2U content
- Visual presentation of texts in E2U language (format, use of images and other paratextual elements)

Methods of teaching/learning

Recommendations of teaching and learning methods:

- Lectures
- Seminars with presentations and discussions
- Practical exercise sessions
- Laboratory work
- Group activities
- Role plays
- Practical writing exercises
- Interviews and discussion with experts
- Peer assessed assignments and exercises
- Evaluation of existing E2U content
- Class discussions of created content
- Comparison of E2U guidelines
- Comparison of different E2U texts
- Comparison of E2U texts in different languages
- Writing research papers

Module EASIT-E2U-S-3 Easy-to-understand language and subtitling (9 ECTS)

Overview

In this module students will learn to merge their prior theoretical knowledge and practical experience in subtitling with their new acquired competences in media accessibility and E2U language. They will learn to recognize the limits of combining these two services moving towards a product as accessible as possible. The linguistic and technical aspects of E2U subtitles are part of this module.

Workload: 225 hours (Recommendation: In class: 81 hours/Individual working hours: 144 hours)

Learning Outcomes

After successful completion of this module, it is expected that students are able to...
- Define the notion of E2U subtitles and recognize the limits of merging E2U language with subtitling while creating a product as accessible as possible.

- Create E2U subtitles.

- Adapt standard subtitles into E2U subtitles.

- Validate E2U subtitles.

- Apply the linguistic aspects of E2U subtitles.

- Apply the technical aspects of E2U subtitles.

- Recognize the importance of developing the field of E2U subtitling through research and professional practice.

- Oral presentation, etc.

Reading List and Teaching Materials

EASIT IO4 Reading List (see Appendix V)
Module EASIT-E2U-S-4 The profession (3 ECTS)

Overview

This module will give the students an inside to the professional field of media accessibility, E2U language and E2U subtitling. Through exchange with other experts and professionals with experience in the field in an internship, the students will be able to understand the current situation of the market in order to be competitive and know what to expect after finalizing the training program.

It is strongly recommended to include in this module an internship or similar activity (voluntary service, part-time or full-time job, etc.) where the trainees have contact with the target groups of easy-to-understand subtitling. Nevertheless, every institution has its own approaches on internships and contact with the profession. These modules can be adapted to the preferences of each institution.

Workload: 75 hours

Total of module credits: 3

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Learning Outcomes
After successful completion of this module, it is expected that students are able to...

- Be assertive and strive for the quality of E2U texts and adapt to different working situations.
- Describe the current market situation of an expert in E2U subtitles.
- Organize workflows efficiently.
- Develop their own strategies to cope with time pressure.
- Explain the importance of having a lifelong learning attitude.
- Work in a team alongside people with diverse capabilities.
- Identify when to turn to advise of other experts and/or end users.

Teaching Contents

The students would be enrolled in an internship (or similar activity) where they would get in exchange with their supervisors knowing firsthand the working environment and the job market, including the contact with end-users.

Methods of teaching/learning

- Internship (or similar activity)

Prerequisites

- Theoretical knowledge and/or practical experience in intralingual and/or interlingual subtitling.
• Successful completion of Module EASIT-E2U-S-1, Module EASIT-E2U-S-2, and EASIT-E2U-S-3.

Assessment

Report on the internship (or similar activity) establishing how they achieved the learning outcomes of this module.
