Dear Doctor Meir Ben-Horin:

I received your letter of 16 april 1964, and I am happy to read your conformity with my article about the spanish jews and the scientific culture in Middle Age; I accept the remuneration of four (4) cents per word, plus the reimburse me the expenses for copying and mailing the typescript.

To day I am sending to You the continuation about the great scientific figure of R. Abraham bar Hlyya, in the pages 9- 15, here including.

During the next sommer I would send to You the restant pages of my article, concerning specially the other great scientific figure of R. Abraham Ibn Ezra: I found many discoveries about his scientific (astronomic) works, and other authors.

But I pray You to send me the remuneration and the expenses concerning the 15 pages that I have sendet to You. You can send to me a sheck for the xpressed remuneration of 15 pages.

I am yet convalescent of my past illness and I can not work very quickly.

With my cordial thanks for all the gentleness You would dispense to me, I am yours faithfully
