International Open Access Week

2022

From October 24 to 30, the International Open Access Week (<https://www.openaccessweek.org/>) is celebrated around the world, an annual initiative to promote open access (OA) in the academic and research world. This year the motto is Open for Climate Justice and aims to raise awareness of how open access can be a means for climate justice.

Below we detail the different talks that will be held to promote open access and we invite you to attend!

The preparation of the Data Management Plan. The experience of three UAB projects

Day: Monday, October 24, 2022

Time: 10 a.m. – 12 noon

Description: The session will begin with a brief introduction on the open data policy in the Horizon Europe program of the European Commission. Next, three researchers from the UAB, from different areas of knowledge, with European Research Council (ERC) projects will explain their experience drafting the Data Management Plan: which aspects they had to solve and how they did it.

At the end of the session, answers will be given to the doubts raised by those attending the event.

They will take part:

- Núria Casaldàliga, Director of the Library Service. Opening of the Week of Open Access at the UAB
- Núria Claver, Head of the International Projects Office. Presentation of the session
- Pilar Rico, Head of the Open Access Unit, Repositories and Journals. Spanish Foundation for Science and Technology (FECYT)
- Carme Font. WINK Project (<https://www.projectwink.eu/>) - Trans-Genre Writing and the Gendering of Intellectual Value in Early Modernity
- Albert Rimola. QUANTUMGRAIN Project (<https://www.quantumgrain.eu/>) - Quantum

Chemistry on Interstellar Grain

- Anna Schlingmann. LICCI Project \(https://licci.eu/\) - Local Indicators of Climate Change Impacts: the contribution of local knowledge to climate change research

Addressed to: PDI, PhD students and PAS who work in the field of research management
