

COURSE TITLE: Fonètica i Fonologia Angleses II

SEMESTER: B

CREDITS: 10

COURSE TEACHER: Ma. Josep Solé

METHOD OF ASSESSMENT:

Besides the usual participatory responsibilities (class attendance, assigned readings) there will be weekly homework assignments and a final written and oral exam. The written exam will include the assigned reading.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF CONTENT:

An introduction to the phonetics and phonology of English. Description of English word and sentence stress, English rhythm, connected speech processes, allophonic variation and English syllable structure. Phonological and phonetic transcription.

BASIC BIBLIOGRAPHY:

- Finch, D.F. and Ortiz Lira, H. 1982. A Course in English Phonetics for Spanish Speakers. London: Heineman.
 - O'Connor, J.D. 1973. Phonetics. Penguin.
 - Rogerson, P. and Gilbert, J.B. 1990, Speaking Clearly. Cambridge University Press.
- More specialized bibliography will be provided during the course.

OBSERVATIONS AND COMMENTS:

Topics to include:

- Word and sentence stress.
- English rhythm.
- The sounds of English: allophonic variation.
- Connected speech processes.
- English phonotactics.