

COURSE TITLE: Literatura Anglesa Moderna i Contemporània II

SEMESTER: B

CREDITS: 5

COURSE TEACHER: Sara Martín / Joan Curbet

METHOD OF ASSESSMENT:

Written exam and paper

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF CONTENT:

This course is an introduction to the 19th Century English novel. The student is provided with a historical background to Victorian Britain and different critical perspectives. Five novels representing the period will be discussed and analyzed.

BASIC BIBLIOGRAPHY:

Compulsory reading:

*Primary sources:

- Jane Austen, Pride and Prejudice
- Emily Brontë, Wuthering Heights
- Charles Dickens, Great Expectations
- Lewis Carroll, Alice in Wonderland
- Robert Louis Stevenson, Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde

*secondary sources:

- selected literary criticism (articles)

OBSERVATIONS AND COMMENTS:

Students are strongly advised to start reading the novels before the beginning of the semester.