Concurs

METHOD OF ASSESSMENT:

The final grade will be mainly based on the final exam in June (written and oral). The midterm exam in February (written and oral), assignments and class participation will also be evaluated.

Only those students who have passed the written part will be allowed to take the oral exam. In order to pass the final exam in June, students will have to pass both the written and the oral parts.

Regarding class assignments, students will be asked to write a composition every week, which should be written in a separate notebook to be handed in whenever required by the teacher. Throughout the year, a total of five essays and two précis will be graded per student.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF CONTENT:

The aim of the course is the development of competence in the English language. The starting level assumed is that of Cambridge First Certificate. The target level is that of Cambridge Advanced English. The course includes a general revision of basic structures and focuses on the widening of vocabulary and grammar.

OBSERVATIONS AND COMMENTS:

In order to pass Llengua Anglesa I, students are required to achieve the target level. Depending on their starting level and capacity, the course may not be sufficient. Therefore, extra practice may be necessary in order to achieve the required level.
