3. Avaluació

Students are expected to:

- * have a good command of the English language and use it for all purposes in the classroom and to communicate with their teacher.
- * understand the theoretical issues discussed.
- * establish links between theory and practice.
- * be reflective.
- * take part in the class and group discussions, showing ability to express one's reactions and argue one's opinions on the issues discussed.

Important:

- * TEFL courses are very experiential; therefore attendance to lectures is compulsory. A minimum of 80% attendance is required. Failure to meet this requirement will be penalised.
- * The lack of mastery in English –inability to communicate orally or through the written medium- will result in a Fail.
- * Students are expected to submit original work. This means:
 - 1) Students must not copy passages, sentences, or even parts of sentences from other sources and present them as if they were their own words.
 - 2) Where relevant, original sources must be quoted.
 - 3) Students should be aware that outside assistance with their work is only acceptable if it involves general advice/guidance. Any work submitted for Continuous Assessment must be their own.
 - 4) Students cannot “recycle” the assignments submitted in previous courses.

If the teacher considers any part of a student's work is not original he/she will be disqualified from Continuous Assessment altogether and will be obliged to take the final exam in September.

4. Fonts d'informació bàsica

Students will need to become familiar with the educational resources available at ADRE, at the Hemeroteque and at the Library of Humanities .

The UAB Virtual Campus will be used for storing course information and materials and an educational platform will be settled so as to implement on-line projects and tasks.
