

PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSESSMENT

26920

Modificat: Juliol 2006

Àrea de Personalitat, Avaluació i Tractaments Psicològics

Professors: Joan Deus, Laura González, Montserrat Lacalle, Nuria de la Osa, Gemma Rubio

ACADEMIC GOALS

---

At the end of the course the student should:

1. Know fundamental concepts related to psychological assessment.
2. Be able to design a psychological assessment process.
3. Know the main techniques and instruments in the different applied contexts and be able to make decisions about their use.

SUBJECTS

---

A: CONCEPTS AND ASSESSMENT PROCESS

1. Historical review of the concept of Psychological Assessment.
2. The Psychological Assessment Process.
3. The psychological report
4. Ethical and scientific guarantees in Psychological Assessment.

B: THECNICS, STRATEGIES AND PROCEDURES OF COLLECTING INFORMATION

5. Interview
6. Observation and self-observation
7. Inventories, scales and questionnaires
8. Psychophysiological measures
9. Projective techniques
10. Psychometric Tests

C: PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSESSMENT IN DIFFERENT PROFESSIONAL CONTEXTS

11. Clinical and Health Psychology Assessment
12. Assessment in Professional Counseling
13. Assessment in Personnel selection.