

Social and Community Intervention

Code: 102565
ECTS Credits: 6

Degree	Type	Year	Semester
2502443 Psychology	OT	4	2

Contact

Name: Marisela Montenegro Montenegro Martinez
Email: Marisela.Montenegro@uab.cat

Use of languages

Principal working language: catalan (cat)
Some groups entirely in English: No
Some groups entirely in Catalan: Yes
Some groups entirely in Spanish: No

Teachers

Luz María Martínez Martínez

Prerequisites

There are no official prerequisites and/or necessary knowledge to follow the subject correctly. It is recommended to have studied the subject of Applied Social Psychology (1st semester / 4th year).

Objectives and Contextualisation

- To articulate the theoretical and practical dimensions of social and community intervention.
- To provide a general and interdisciplinary view of the theoretical and methodological developments of social and community intervention.
- To capacity in the use of the toolbox of technical intervention and evaluation in the social and community field.
- To relate interventions, programs, and projects with the sociocultural and historical context in which they are developed.

Content

- Block I: Perspectives and methodologies of social and community intervention.
Fundamental concepts of social and community intervention
Directive and participatory intervention perspectives
- Block II: Analysis of the demand and methods of diagnosis.
Institutional and social demands and demand negotiation processes
Fundamental concepts and techniques of psychosocial diagnosis
- Block III: Objectives and priorities of the intervention.
Community processes in the definition and prioritization of the problems to intervene
Definition and drafting of intervention objectives
- Block IV: Plans for intervention.
Action plans. Expected results. Design of activities
Schedule and budgets in the intervention plans
- Block V: Evaluation.

Fundamental principles of psychosocial evaluation
Evaluation of results and community processes