2. PRESENTATION

This subject is about enhancing the teaching cycle by the completion of an internship (250 h.) in an establishment in the tourism sector, while it brings the students to a closer professional reality of the industry. The practicum is conducted in a tourism company: travel agency, hotel, professional congress organiser, tourist promotion office... located, generally, in the area of influence of the graduate school.

It is important to note that the cycle has been preceded by the completion of the subject Practicum I. Through both of them, the students will acquire experiences and knowledge of the real world that will help them to cement their professional abilities and potentialities. It will also enable them to join the labour market after finishing their studies in an appropriate direction, based on their skills, talents, motivations and ambitions.

The remaining 2 credits (50 hours) will be provided through the confirmation of participation to the in-class inspirational sessions, such as the opening session of the subject, the counselling interview with the academic tutor, the attendance to the EUTDH (i.e. Workshop-Trobada Empreses-Escola) and any other event/visit suggested by the tutor. Likewise, as part of these 2 credits, the student will have to prepare the Internship memorandum, get the company tutor assessment duly signed and stamped by the organization and answer the quality and feedback surveys.

3. EDUCATIONAL GOALS

1. To approach the student to the real labour market situation of the sector.
2. To broaden and apply the theoretical knowledge on the various topics covered during the degree.
3. To get the experience and the knowledge from a real professional environment.
4. To facilitate the development of professional skills.
5. To meet all the requirements of the practical teaching programme of the degree.

CT13. To have business vision, identify the client's necessities and anticipate eventual changes in the environment.

5. TOPIC AND CONTENT

The practical training consists of 250 hours training at a company of the tourist sector. The content of this subject includes the internship period, the completion of the workshops and activities related to this subject, and the attendance to various events and sessions organized during the year.

At the end of the internship period, the student will need to deliver to the academic tutor the Internship Memorandum, as well as the document filled in by the company tutor with the assessment of the student's performance. The survey will be required too.

The practical training pursues to know the organization, operation and management of companies of the tourist sector, covering the guest attendance, the organization and promotion of tourist products or services, etc. If needed, the EUTDH will offer a wide range of partner companies that will collaborate to achieve these learning goals. To this extend, amongst the activities and events the student must complete and attend in order to pass the subject, we highlight the Workshop-Trobada Empreses-Escola that takes place in February each year.

7. TEACHING METHODOLOGY

The course will be taught using three different teaching methodologies:

- a) Learning by doing – practical training at a professional environment, duly monitored and tutored by an expert on the professional field.
- b) Self-assessment and self-analysis tasks.
- c) Autonomous work after being in contact with industry professionals to better understand the business operations and the professional profiles that better match each role and type of company.

Additionally, the student will have to be adapted to the culture of the organization, its internal regulation and values while considering the tutor instructions and the EUTDH main rules.

9. PLANNING

Total ECTS of the subject = 12

Total hours = 300h, out of which 250h are performed within the company assigned.

10. ENTREPRENEURSHIP AND INNOVATION

The subject is projected to be an eye-opener to the reality of the industry in order to let the students understand where they would fit the most, based on their talents, motivations and experiences during their internships.

With that in mind, we plan different inspirational sessions with industry professionals around the world, we invite national and multinational companies to introduce their training programs and share the experiences and testimonials of different EUTDH UAB alumni with proven success in management roles.
