Use of Languages

Principal working language: english (eng)
Some groups entirely in English: Yes
Some groups entirely in Catalan: No
Some groups entirely in Spanish: No

Prerequisites

- A keen interest and enthusiasm for the reading and debate of literary works in English related to the representation and memory of the major war conflicts of the 20th century.
- Students are advised to have passed all first and second year subjects in the English Studies degree before taking this subject.
- The starting level of English is C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: Learning, Teaching, Assessment, which means that the student is able to understand a wide range of long, complex texts and can recognize implicit meanings. S/he can express him or herself fluently and spontaneously without it being obvious that s/he is searching for the correct word or expression. The student should be able to use the language efficiently and flexibly for social, academic and professional purposes. S/he should be able to produce clear, well structured and detailed texts on complex topics and demonstrate his or her control over organizing structures and connectors.
- The required level for the final dissertation (TFG) is C2, which requires the student to understand what he or she reads or hears without effort. S/he should be able to summarize information from other sources, both oral and written, build up arguments and present them coherently. S/he should also be able to express him or herself spontaneously, fluently and precisely, and distinguish subtleties in all kinds of situations.

Objectives and Contextualisation

The 2019-2020 edition of "Prose in English" will focus on the study of a specific genre: war literature.

Special attention will be paid to issues related to ethics, politics, memory and even the physical experience of war. Specifically, the following topics will be addressed:

- Men's and Women's Identities at War
- The Representation of the Enemy

- The Myths of War
- The Heroic
- The traumatic legacy of war

When completing the course, the student will be able to:

- Recognize the distinctive characteristics that determine the war literature genre.
- Demonstrate their knowledge of the historical evolution of the genre throughout the 20th century
- Make basic critical contributions to literary theory, from an informed perspective.
- Demonstrate their knowledge of the interaction between critical discourse and literature, especially showing the interconnection between the two.

Competences

English Studies

- Critically assessing the scientific, literary and cultural production in the English language.
- Develop critical thinking and reasoning and knowing how to communicate effectively both in your mother tongue and in other languages.
- Generate innovative and competitive proposals in research and professional activities.
- Identify the main literary, cultural and historical currents in the English language.
- Produce clear and well structured and detailed texts in English about complex topics, displaying a correct use of the organisation, connection and cohesion of the text.
- Rewrite and organize information and arguments coming from several sources in English and presenting them in a coherent and summarised way.
- Students can apply the knowledge to their own work or vocation in a professional manner and have the powers generally demonstrated by preparing and defending arguments and solving problems within their area of study.
- Students must be capable of communicating information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialised and non-specialised audiences.
- Students must develop the necessary learning skills in order to undertake further training with a high degree of autonomy.
- Students must have and understand knowledge of an area of study built on the basis of general secondary education, and while it relies on some advanced textbooks it also includes some aspects coming from the forefront of its field of study.
- Utilising new technologies in order to capture and organise information in English and other languages, and applying it to the personal continued training and to the problem-solving in the professional or research activity.
- Working in an autonomous and responsible way in a professional or research environment in English or other languages, in order to accomplish the previously set objectives.

Assessment

- Academic essay = 40% - Date: 5 November
- Exam = 40% - Date: 20 December
- Class Participation = 10%
- Forum Contribution= 10% (There will be a specific deadline for each forum contribution required)

Please, note:

- All the subjects in this degree follow continuous assessment.
- All the exercises are COMPULSORY.
- The submission of either the paper or the exam invalidates the student to get a final mark of "No evaluable."
- The student's command of English will be taken into account when making all exercises and for the final mark. It will count as 25% of this mark for all the exercises.

RE-ASSESSMENT CONDITIONS:

- Students whose final average mark of the two exercises is 3,5 to 4,9 (without counting the class participation mark and the forum contribution mark) and who have completed Continuous Assessment may take re-assessment.
- If the final average mark of the two exercises is inferior to 3,5 or if the student has failed both exercises, they will miss the opportunity of reassessment and will be granted a Fail.
- The reassessment consists of a two-hour written exam on matters related to the subject. The exam is awarded a Pass/Fail mark and the maximum possible final mark is a 5. In case students cannot do the exercises (essay - exam) on the date set up by the teacher for justified medical reasons, they may do the exercise(s) on a different date agreed by the teacher.

VERY IMPORTANT : Partial or total plagiarising will immediately result in a FAIL (0) for the plagiarised exercise (first-year students) or the WHOLE subject (second-, third-and fourth-year students). PLAGIARISING consists of copying text from unacknowledged sources -whether this is part of a sentence or a whole text - with the intention of passing it off as the student's own production. It includes cutting and pasting from internet sources, presented unmodified in the student's own text. Plagiarising is a SERIOUS OFFENCE. Students must respect authors' intellectual property, always identifying the sources they may use; they must also be responsible for the originality and authenticity of their own texts.
