Assessment

Evaluation:

The final grade is the result of the following activities:

70% ---- 2 exams on the contents explained in class and the obligatory readings.

30% ---- individual or group essays on obligatory readings, practices, oral expositions.

The characteristic and dates of completion and delivery of all these test will be explained on the first day of class and will be available to the virtual media of the subject. They will be carried out according to the temporal and thematic progression of the semester. Only synthesis test (exam) will be recoverable.

The subject is approved if a minimum of 5 points (out of 10) is obtained with the sum of the grades of the evaluation activities carried out.

The student will be considered "not evaluable" if they have delivered less than 60% of the evaluable evidence (exams and works) of the total of the subject.

The copy/plagiarism of written sources (Internet, books, works, etc...) will suppose a 0 in the qualification of the exercise. If these irregularities are repeated, the overall score will be zero.

According to the written expression guides of our degree, orthographic, expression, lessical and syntgax correction will be evaluated. The repetition of spelling or grammatical errors can be penalized between 0'2-0,25 for each fault committed on the final grade. Repeated foluls (minimum four) can be a maximum panalty of 10% of test score.

The student will have the right to review the results of tests carried out. The professor will establish opportunely the mecanisms to do it.

The subject is face-to-face. The teachers will establish the mechanisms that they consider appropriate to verify the degree of attendance of the students. In the case of specific activities where the presence of all the students is necessary, the unjustified absence of the students will be penalized with a 0'5 in the note the activity.

Recovery:

As established by the recovery protocol of the Faculty of Philosophy and Letters, in order to be entitled to recovery students must "have been submitted to all the tests that appear in the teaching guide of the subject of the current year". This means that, if you do not do any of the planned examinations or do not deliver the required work, you will not have the right to recovery.

The recovery will consist of a global examination of the whole subject. It will take place on the date established by the Faculty.

The maximum note that can be obtained in the recovery process is a 5 (APPROVED).

In no case may recovery be considered as a mechanism to improve the grade of students who have passed the subject in the normal evaluation process.
