Methodology

The methodological approach is the principle of the variety of methodological strategies. It must facilitate active participation and learning of the students. In this sense, keynote sessions will arise with large group, and some activities to work in small groups using cooperative learning and self-employment will be strengthened. The teacher has to support students in this methodological approach, providing some resources to mediate their learning process. The tutorials will be considered as a fundamental part in this methodological approach.

Assessment

The evaluation of the subject is continuous and will be based on a written test that will have a weight of 50% in the final mark of the subject and in activities / practical work either individual or group (50% in the final grade) . All the evidence must obtain a minimum of 5 to be able to make an average.

Students who have successfully followed the subject during the course and still have some aspect not achieved, will be given the opportunity to pass the subject by completing a final reassessment. In this case, the maximum grade of the re-evaluated block will be 5. In no case, the re-evaluation will be considered to raise the mark obtained.

If finally one of the evidences (for suspension or NP) is not approved, it will mean that the expected minimum has not been reached and the subject with the corresponding qualification for the suspended evidence will be suspended.

The results of the evaluation of each of the evidences must be published on the virtual campus within a maximum period of 21 days after its completion, and a review date must be offered within 10 days after its publication.

According to UAB regulations, the plagiarism or copy of any work or written test will be penalized with a 0 as a mark of the subject losing the possibility of recovering it, whether it is an individual or group work (in this case, all members of the group will have a 0). If, during the course of an individual work in class, the teacher considers that a student is trying to copy or discovered any type of document or device that is not authorized by the teaching staff, the same will be described with a 0, without a recovery option, and Therefore, the subject will be suspended. Attendance in face-to-face sessions is mandatory, the student must attend at least 80%. Otherwise the evaluation will correspond to an NP.

The treatment of particular cases, doubts, suggestions, etc. should be addressed to the teachers of the corresponding block.

The evaluation of this subject follows the Criteria and general guidelines for the evaluation of the Faculty of Education Sciences, according to the Agreement of the Academic Organization Committee April 28, 2011, June 4, 2014 and July 28 May 2015. The assessment will be partial: first part on April 16, 2020 and the second part on June 18, 2020. The recovery will be on June 25, 2020.

On the other hand, to pass this subject, the student must show, in the activities proposed, good general communicative competence, both orally and in writing, and a good command of the language that appears in the teaching guide . In all activities (individual and group), linguistic correction, writing and formal aspects of presentation will be taken into account. Students must be able to express themselves fluently and correlatively and must show a high level of understanding of the academic texts. An activity can be returned (not evaluated) or suspended if the teacher considers that it does not meet these requirements. The gender perspective will also be taken into account in the general communicative expression.

As a future teacher, we must show an attitude that is compatible with the educational profession as a requirement to pass the subject, as well as an ethical commitment to the profession. Attitudes of active listening, argumentation, respect for peers and teachers, participation, cooperation, empathy, kindness, punctuality or the use of the appropriate mobile or laptop are required only when necessary for the class, among others . An ethical commitment to the deontological principles of the profession is required. If these requirements are not met, the grade of the subject will be 3.

Before delivering evidence of learning, it is necessary to verify that the sources, notes, text citations and bibliographic references have been correctly written in accordance with the APA regulations. and according to the documentation summarized in the UAB sources:
https://ddd.uab.cat/pub/recdoc/2016/145881/citrefapa_a2016.pdf

Any change made in the contents of the guide and / or program of the course during the course will be agreed with the students that attend that day in class where the possible change is discussed and will be announced later on the virtual campus of the subject . Likewise, the contents exposed in the initial schedule of each block may vary if an agreement is reached between the teacher and the students who attend the class on the day they are proposed. If you remember the modification in the guide and / or program will be informed through the news of the moodle of the subject. Changes can allow adjusting the contents to the characteristics, knowledge, interests and particular rhythms of the class group.

All this information and another one will be uploaded at the beginning of the course in the moodle of the subject that we will use as a communication tool.
