Objectives and Contextualisation

"Catalan literature" is a subject of 6 credits which has an introductory nature and the objective of presenting a general historical view of the subject from its origins to the thirties of the twentieth century. Based on some of the most important works of the period, it is intended to promote the critical reading and contextualization capacity. At the end of the course, the student must be able to: (a) know and locate historically the authors, genres and most important works studied; (b) understand the meaning of literary tradition; (c) understand and comment orally the texts read; (d) produce written comments about these texts.

The course is part of the 60 nuclear credits programmed for the second year of Humanities students.

Competences

- Critically analysing today's culture and its historical conditions.
- Designing, producing, disseminating and commercializing a cultural product.
- Interpreting social and cultural diversity.
- Properly using the resources and methodologies of the study of contemporary culture.
- Students must be capable of collecting and interpreting relevant data (usually within their area of study) in order to make statements that reflect social, scientific or ethical relevant issues.
- Students must be capable of communicating information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialised and non-specialised audiences.

Learning Outcomes

1. Analysing literary texts using different concepts and methods of comparative literature.
2. Describing the characteristics of a literary text and the characteristic methods of analysis of the discipline.
3. Explaining the basic characteristics of literary texts.
4. Identifying and explaining the basic structures of literary works.
5. Identifying various literary elements and inserting them into different texts and discursive styles.
6. Interpreting the regulatory information that is located in the web pages of regulatory institutions.
7. Preparing a summary from a given text.
8. Solving problems related to the study of different literatures.
9. Solving tasks about authors, methods and currents of the comparative literature.
10. Using suitable terminology when drawing up an academic text.

Content

1. Medieval poetry from troubadours to Ausiàs Marc
2. The court: history, popularization and classicism
3. Medieval narrative. Genres. Lo somni
4. The Renaissance in the Crown of Aragon
5. From the Baroque to the Enlightenment and pre-Romanticism
6. Romanticism and "Renaixença". Genres. Jacint Verdaguer. Àngel Guimerà
7. "Costumisme" and Realism. Narcís Oller
8. "Modernisme". Joan Maragall. Víctor Català
9. "Noucentisme" and Avant-garde. Josep Carner
10. The 30's. Genres. Literary criticism

Methodology

The subject is distributed in theoretical sessions and reading seminars. The theoretical sessions have a panoramic and contextual character and are accompanied by the commentary of theoretical-critical texts. The sessions devoted to reading focus on the analysis of compulsory reading works and other complementary texts. A list of works and bibliographical references associated with each reading will be available.

A detailed program and calendar of the sessions will be presented at the beginning of the course

Assessment

The competences of this subject will be evaluated by means of an examination and of individual written and oral works. The evaluation system is organized in 3 modules, each of which will have a specific weight assigned in the final grade:

Module of presentations (in the classroom or by videoconference), with a global weight of 15% (each student must do at least one class intervention throughout the semester)

Written test module, with a global weight of 50% (two partial exams)

Work delivery module, which will evaluate a job with a global weight of 35%

The recovery system provides that other tests can be performed with the aim of recovering at least 50% of the activities carried out. To participate in the recovery the students must have been previously evaluated in a set of activities whose weight equals to a minimum of two thirds of the total grade of the subject or module, and must have achieved overall a rating between 3.5 and 4.9. The maximum recovery note is 5.

If the student has not completed at least a 65% of the evaluation, they will have a "no evaluable".

In the event of a student committing any irregularity that may lead to a significant variation in the grade awarded to an assessment activity, the student will be given a zero for this activity, regardless of any disciplinary process that may take place. In the event of several irregularities in assessment activities of the same subject, the student will be given a zero as the final grade for this subject.

Bibliography

It is convenient to keep in mind the historical panoramas: the systematic one of M. de Riquer, A. Comas & J. Molas, Història de la literatura catalana (Barcelona, Ariel), which often offers summaries of the most relevant works, the information accumulated by Jordi Rubió i Balaguer, especially the volumes I-VIII of the Obres by Jordi Rubió i Balaguer and the Índexs (Barcelona, Publicacions de l'Abadia de Montserrat, 1984 -2004), as well as the Panorama crític de la literatura catalana directed by Albert Rossich (Barcelona, Vicens Vives, 2009-2011, 6 vols.). There are many cultural and literary syntheses that are very useful such as Pere Gabriel (dir.), Història de la cultura catalana (Barcelona, Edicions 62, 1994-1999), and dictionaries of authors such as the Nou diccionari de la literatura catalana (Barcelona, Edicions 62, 2000) and the Diccionari de la literatura catalana (Barcelona, Enciclopèdia Catalana, 2008). You can also consult the three volumes, directed by Lola Badia, of the Història de la literatura catalana. Literatura medieval (Barcelona, Enciclopèdia Catalana/Barcino /Ajuntament de Barcelona, 2013-2015) and, from the same work, volumes IV (Literatura moderna. Renaixement, Barroc i Il·lustració, Barcelona, 2016, directed by Josep Solervicens) and V (Literatura contemporània. El Vuit-cents, directed by Enric Cassany and Josep M. Domingo).
