Prerequisites

There is no previous requirement other than to enjoy reading and literature. We recommend students to have passed the first-year subject "Història i Cultura de les Illes Britàniques."

The entry language level of English is B2/C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: Learning, Teaching, Assessment, according to which the student is able to understand the main ideas of specific and abstract subjects, including technical arguments in his or her field of specialization (in this case, literature). Also, the student has to be able to interact with native speakers fluently without much effort, and to write clear argumentative essays in which opinions are expressed. The target level at the end of the course is C1.

It is the responsibility of the student to read the books and other materials required for the course. Any indication that students have not completed their reading will negatively affect their assessment.

Objectives and Contextualisation

"Literatura Anglesa del s. XX" offers an introduction to the main literary genres of this Literature focused on 20th century texts (short fiction, drama, poetry and the novel) by means of reading, analysis, debate and interpretation.

This compulsory subject offers basic skills, knowledge and training in the main features of each genre and an introduction to a few main representative authors of English Literature in each genre.

It trains students, above all, in reading, interpreting a selection of texts and writing a critical essay. The training offered is essential to follow all subsequent English Literature subjects.

On completion of "Literatura Anglesa del S. XX," students will be able to:

- Show knowledge of the main concerns of twentieth century English literature
- Show a solid reading comprehension of literary texts in contemporary English
- Produce basic literary criticism (short essays)
- Use the resources of any university library in relation to the subject-matter English Literature
- Express an informed assessment of the literary texts in English s/he may read

Methodology

The teaching methodology is based on:

1 credit ECTS = 25 tuition hours > 6 credits = 150 hours

- Guided activities (maximum 50%, 30%, theory and 20% practice, 1,8 cr)
- Supervised activities (maximum 25%, 0,9 cr)
- Autonomous (maximum 50%, 3 cr)
- Assessment Activities (maximum 25%, 0,3 cr)

Activities

Title	Hours	ECTS	Learning Outcomes
Type: Directed
Lectures	30	1.2	1, 7, 9, 6, 11, 13, 15, 10, 16
Practice, readings and debates	20	0.8	1, 7, 9, 6, 11, 10
Type: Supervised
Assessment activities: writing and class assignments	25	1	1, 7, 9, 6, 11, 10
Type: Autonomous
Reading and study	50	2	1, 2, 3, 4, 9, 13, 14, 16

Assessment

Assessment is based on:

- 4 Evaluated items (1 per Unit) = 90% of total course mark
 - Item 1 (15%)= critical essay (short stories)
 - Item 2 (25%)= essay/activity (play)
 - Item 3 (35%)= critical essay (novel)
 - Item 4 (15%)= oral presentation (poems)
- Participation in online Forum (Moodle) activities = 10%

Please, note:

- All the subjects in this course follow continuous assessment. There is no final exam.
- All the exercises are COMPULSORY. Undelivered evaluation activities will be equivalent to a 0 for that activity, and therefore, this will negatively affect the average grade of the 4 evaluation elements.
- The submission of any exercise invalidates the student to get a final mark of "No Avaluable".
- The minimum pass mark for the whole subject is 5.
- The student's command of English will be taken into account when marking all exercises and for the final mark. It will count as 25% of this mark for all the exercises and will be assessed as follows: Grammar (morphology and syntax): 30%; Vocabulary (accuracy and variety): 15%; Consistency (among sentences and paragraphs): 15%; Organization (sound argumentation of ideas): 20%; Style (expression and register): 15%; Spelling: 5%.
- Students must pass the evaluated items of the 4 units with a 5 as an average mark for the Online Forum activity marks (10%) to count towards the final course mark.
- In the event that classes or any evaluation activities cannot be taken onsite, they will be adapted to an online format made available through the UAB's virtual tools (original weighting will be maintained). Homework, activities and class participation will be carried out through forums, wikis and/or discussion on Teams, etc. Lecturers will ensure that students are able to access these virtual tools, or will offer them feasible alternatives.
- Reviewing procedure: Students have a right to review their exercises with the teacher in a personal tutorial. On carrying out each evaluation activity, lecturers will inform students (on Moodle) of the procedures to be followed for reviewing all grades awarded, and the date on which such a review will take place. The student loses this right if s/he fails to collect the exercise/exam within the period announced by the teacher.

- Re-assessment conditions: Only students who have completed the continuous assessment and passed at least TWO of the exams given throughout the course may take reassessment. Students who are eligible for reassessment have got a final average exam mark between 3,5 and 4,9. If the final average exam mark is lower than 3,5 or they haven't passed at least 2 of the 4 items, the student will have failed the subject.
- The reassessment consists of a two-hour written exam on matters related to the subject. The exam is awarded a Pass/Fail mark and the maximum possible final mark is a 5.
- Evaluation Activities Excluded from Reassessment: Online Forums
- VERY IMPORTANT! Partial or total plagiarising will immediately result in a FAIL(0) for the plagiarised exercise or the WHOLE SUBJECT if plagiarism is repeated. PLAGIARISING consists of copying text from unacknowledged sources -whether this is part of a sentence or a whole text-with the intention of passing it off as the student's own production. It includes cutting and pasting from internet sources, presented unmodified in the student's own text. Plagiarising is a SERIOUS OFFENCE. Students must respect authors' intellectual property, always identifying the sources they may use; they must also be responsible for the originality and authenticity of their own texts. In the event of a student committing any irregularity that may lead to a significant variation in the grade awarded to an assessment activity, the student will be given a zero for this activity, regardless of any disciplinary process that may take place.
