Objectives and Contextualisation

The aim of this subject is to gain familiarity with the basic tools for describing musical fonds, and their application in the treatment of manuscript and printed sources preserved in Catalan archives. This subject makes available to students the musical repertoire of composers that still remains ignored and overlooked in many archives and libraries in this country. Through direct contact with sources and through bi-annual internships, students gain direct knowledge of the immense work required to know the history of Catalan music, especially that of the 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th centuries.

- 1.-Learning the necessary methodological tools to access the description criteria detailed in the documents. Application to the filing of manuscripts and printed materials.
- 2.-learning the classification and ordering criteria for the conserved repertoire being treated.
- 3.-Access to the sources of musical repertoire in the Catalan area: localisation, state and programmes of action.
- 4.-Promoting works on unpublished musical sources (authors and repertoire).
- 5.-Participation in the drafting of analytical inventories for musical fonds (manuscripts and printed materials) belonging to the Church, or in public and/or private collections.
- 6.-Fostering participation in the production of support projects aimed at a knowledge of Catalan musical heritage and its diffusion.

- Know and understand the historical evolution of music, its technical, stylistic, aesthetic and interpretative characteristics from a diachronic perspective.
- Producing innovative and competitive proposals in research and professional activity.
- Students must be capable of applying their knowledge to their work or vocation in a professional way and they should have building arguments and problem resolution skills within their area of study.
- Students must be capable of collecting and interpreting relevant data (usually within their area of study) in order to make statements that reflect social, scientific or ethical relevant issues.
- Students must develop the necessary learning skills to undertake further training with a high degree of autonomy.
- Students must have and understand knowledge of an area of study built on the basis of general secondary education, and while it relies on some advanced textbooks it also includes some aspects coming from the forefront of its field of study.

Learning Outcomes

1. Acquire skills for the organisation of working groups with adequate planning, division of tasks and methodological flexibility.
2. Carry out projects with musicological content, preparing a work plan and methodology appropriate to the object and timing of the research.
3. Discern and value the main methodologies for describing archive documents.
4. Extract information from sources and adapt them to the fields of their description.

8. Present knowledge about the history, art or other cultural movements.
9. Producing an individual work that specifies the work plan and timing of activities.
10. Summarising acquired knowledge about the origin and transformations experienced in its several fields of study.
11. Use techniques of cataloguing, transcription, critical editing, study, analysis and diffusion of music heritage in a professional manner.
12. Use the vocabulary of musicology related to each period of history.

II. Integrated Internships

1.- Fieldwork. Internship on cataloguing a CEDOC musical fonds (in alternating groups of students)

2.- Internship on the conversion of musical incipits digitalised in Plaine & Easy Code (in alternating groups of students)

Methodology

The programming of this subject is eminently practical, with the aim of bringing students into direct contact with the musical, manuscript and printed fonds conserved in the Orfeó Català Documentation Centre's musical fonds (CEDOC), through practical sessions given in the archive centre itself.

In the case of virtual teaching, work will be done on the description of the digitized personal collections of Mateo Sabatés and Josep Fradera.

In addition to those items referring to international cataloguing systems, the methodological support makes use of the latest studies on the recovery of Catalan musical heritage (10 volumes of the collection Inventaris dels fons musicals de Catalunya [Inventory of the Musical Fonds in Catalonia]). The teaching resources for this group of subjects makes use of material pertaining to the "Instruments of description for the methodology of filing the Inventories of Catalan musical fonds (IFMuC)" and their reconstituted databases, with the respective fields of description for each one of the collections making up the fonds in question.

For students wishing to take this option, the fourth-year subject "External Internships" allows them to continue working on cataloguing a musical fonds through the corresponding Internship Agreement.

1.- Classes for this subject are divided into two blocks.

a) The first of these are given by the teacher in lecture format (15 hours) in order to focus on each item in the course syllabus.

b) The second block is made up of practical sessions (30 hours) given in specific archives and/or libraries in order to apply criteria pertaining to the tools of documentary description, distributed alternately between:

- Practices of description of musical documents preserved in the CEDOC, in other archives and/or libraries, or in the case of virtual teaching in digitized personal collections, in accordance with the «Guide for the treatment and description of musical documents of the IFMuC UAB project»
- Practices with Plaine & Easy Code (PAE) for the transcription of musical incipits of the accessible IFMuC database online. The maintenance and updating of the code is carried out by the International Association of Music Libraries and Documentation Centers (IAML) and the International Repertory of Musical Sources (RISM). 2.- Works.

a) Autonomous. Preparation of bio-bibliographical work on unpublished Catalan authors so as to incorporate new referential articles, based on IFMuC sources, onto the Catalan version of Wikipedia (<https://ca.wikipedia.org/wiki/Viquiprojecte:IFMuC>).

b) individual or team work tutored. Presentation of individual, or team, research into Catalan musical heritage (creation and dissemination centres; authors, genres, styles and repertoires).

Assessment

This is a subject with a marked practical profile. The result of its evaluation is obtained from the sum of three components:

1.- Attendance/virtual assistance. In order to study this subject, it is essential that the student's complete attendance/virtual be made in the two sections that configure it:

a) Theoretical classes: 15 hours

b) Practical classes: 45 hours

Students who fail to prove face-to-face assistance in 50 % of the classes will be considered "Non-Valuable".

Value in the evaluation: 50 %

2.- Autonomous work.

Creation of work items based on preparation of 10 bio-bibliographical materials on unpublished composers to incorporate new articles of reference in Wikipedia (<https://ca.wikipedia.org/wiki/Viquiprojecte:IFMuC>)

Teamwork will count 25% on the result of the final evaluation.

Delivery date: 18/12/01.

3.- Tutored individual or team work tutored.

The individual, or team research work (2 students), on Catalan Musical Heritage (authors and repertoire) will be count 25 % on the result of the final evaluation.

Date of submission: 8 & 15/01/21.

In the event of a student committing any irregularity that may lead to a significant variation in the grade awarded to an assessment activity, the student will be given a zero for this activity, regardless of any disciplinary process that may take place. In the event of several irregularities in assessment activities of the same subject, the student will be given a zero as the final grade for this subject.

In the event that tests or exams cannot be taken onsite, they will be adapted to an online format made available through the UAB's virtual tools (original weighting will be maintained). Homework, activities and class participation will be carried out through forums, wikis and/or discussion on Teams, etc. Lecturers will ensure that students are able to access these virtual tools, or will offer them feasible alternatives.
