Objectives and Contextualisation

This subject is framed within the group of studies in the Degree in Tourism relating to the management and development of people within organizations, specifically that of Human-Resources (HR) in tourism-related companies. This subject, however, is the continuation of "Introduction to Business" (a first-year subject), which focuses on subjects concerning organizational structure and strategy in tourism companies, and represents a continuity with the fundamental content of that subject. This subject is highly practical in approach and aims to apply its theoretical content in the form of exercises, case simulations, and other complementary activities.

On completing this subject, students should be able to:

1. Understand the most relevant theoretical models and key concepts in Human Resources Management within organizations.
2. Understand the principle techniques concerning people management within organizations.
3. Understand and know how to apply these management techniques in the case of tourism-related companies.

Competences

- Apply the concepts related to tourism products and businesses (economy and finance, human resources, commercial policy, markets, operations and strategy) in the different parts of the sector.

- Behave responsibly towards the environment.
- Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the basic principles of tourism in all its dimensions and areas.
- Develop a capacity for independent learning.
- Plan and manage activities on the basis of quality and sustainability.
- Plan, organise and coordinate a work team, creating synergies and showing empathy.
- Use communication techniques at all levels.
- Work in a team.

Learning Outcomes

1. Behave responsibly towards the environment.
2. Develop a capacity for independent learning.
3. Identify and apply the concepts of strategic management with regard to the tourism product and business.
4. Identify the concepts and theory underpinning a tourism business strategy.
5. Plan and manage activities on the basis of quality and sustainability.
6. Plan, organise and coordinate a work team, creating synergies and showing empathy.
7. Use communication techniques at all levels.

Methodology

1) The methodology of the theoretical part of the course:

Classroom-based classes with an explanation regarding the different agenda items. Self-study of the theoretical materials. Theoretical classes will be audiovisual (PowerPoint presentations, video viewing to support the theory, etc.).

2) The methodology of the practical part of the course:

Preparation and class-based presentation of exercises, case studies, and/or projects (individually and in groups) related to theoretical explanations. Some exercises and cases will be conducted by students in out-class hours. The exercises, cases, and work, will have to be delivered in a paper document or digital format for evaluation.

3) The methodology of the outclass learning part of the course (Campus Virtual):

The Campus Virtual platform will be used to share information and alternative media in the classroom between students and the teacher. Campus Virtual will contain the profile of the course, additional theoretical material in digital form, cases and exercises, links to websites, etc.

Activities

Title	Hours	ECTS	Learning Outcomes
Type: Directed
Public presentation of the Project	4	0.16	3, 7, 5, 8
Resolution of Practical cases	30	1.2	3, 7, 6, 8

Assessment

1. Continuous evaluation:

a) Practical activities (20%): The realization and exhibition-discussion of the exercises and individual cases in team, face-to-face and on-line throughout the course, which will be delivered within the pre-determined period.

b) Project (30%): The realization of an individual or team Project on the role of HR in companies in the tourism sector. Project work must be delivered on the established date and publicly exposed in class.

c) Periodical control (50%): The realization of an examination that will include both the theoretical subject exposed in the lectures and aspects related to the practical part of the subject.

To approve the subject it is necessary to obtain a score above 5 (five) on average in each of the three parts of evaluation (separately) to calculate the final grade for the course. Otherwise, he/she should go to the final exam.

2. Instead of continuous evaluations (1a, 1b, and 1c) shown above, students have the option to directly take the final exam. The grade of the final exam will be 100% of the final grade.

Students with a grade between 3.5 and 4.9 in the final exam will have the chance to retake the exam, according to the calendar of the academic activities, which is reported in students' guide or in the web of the school. If these students pass the retake exam, their final grade will be 5.
