Assessment

The evaluation model is continuous and has the training objective that students and teachers can know the degree of achievement of the competencies to guide the training process. The practical activities carried out throughout the course will mean 20% of the final mark. There will be two partial exams and will count 40% of the mark. At the beginning of the course the professor responsible for the subject will inform the students of all the practical activities that will be carried out throughout the course. Each teacher responsible at the beginning of the course will inform the students of the type of exam (test, short questions, ...) as well as if it is necessary to approve the two parts to pass the subject.

It will also inform about the conditions to be able to access the re-evaluation. In each teaching group, they will be published on the Virtual Campus, before the beginning of the teaching, the specific date or the week of realization of the evaluable activities, without prejudice that, exceptionally and due to causes of force majeure, they can, with notice and sufficiently in advance, be modified.

A student who cheats or try to cheat an exam will have a 0 as a mark. A Student who submits a paper o practical in which there is evidence of plagiarism will have a 0 as a mark and will receive a warning. In case of repetition, the students will fail the subject.
