Methodology

The methodology of the course is based not only on master class methodology, but also in parallel activities (text commentaries, extension work, speeches, analysis of simple daily decisions ...), with the goal to engage and provoke emotional and intellectual concerns in the students. In particular, these activities will be conducted in both team groups and individually, have a weight of 50% and the final exam means the remaining 50%. For the implementation and evaluation of these activities will work in groups doing mentoring by the teacher. In chronological terms adequate monitoring of the progress of a student implies, in general, the following stages:

1. Attendance at master classes.
2. Personal work: Complement with reading the basic literature and presentations and exercises available on campus
3. Personal work: Reading and text analysis, conducting exercises and graphics.
4. Discussion in working groups: Commentary and discussion of the work. Generate questions to the teacher.
5. Session working group with the teacher: Questions and discussion of the main objectives.
6. Preparing report and presentation workgroups
7. Oral presentation to the teacher and, if appropriate, other group.

Once the teaching weeks:

8. Personal study for the preparation of the written exam
9. Conducting the written examination
