Content

This module introduces the student in the legal research on a specific topic of Business Law, from the perspective of private or public law. Student carries out a research of bibliography, case law, on line resources and so on, to present publicly a Master's degree project before a commission.

Methodology

To carry out the Master's dissertation (TFM), the student has:

A specific subject of Legal Research Methodology, compulsory follow-up, which is taken at the beginning of the academic year, to teach you research techniques.

A follow-up in tutorials every 3 weeks with the module coordinator throughout the academic year, to control methodological issues or in the form of scientific research. Decides 25% of the grade.

A periodic check with your director for substantive issues, always an expert in the field of knowledge, who can advise you on specific issues that complement the module coordinator. Puts 50% of the final grade.

A tribunal made up of three professors for their evaluation, ensuring that they are never the director of the TFM, and guaranteeing that they have specific knowledge on the branch of knowledge of each TFM. Adds the other 25% of the final grade of the module.

Assessment

The evaluation of the subject will be carried out through the public defense of the Master's dissertation. The final grade of the module results from the following percentages:

- Director's rating: 50%
- Court note: 25%
- Note from the module coordinator: 25%

Once the evaluation has been communicated, a review may be requested so that the Professor explains to the student the applied criteria (art. 114.3 UAB academic regulations), without prejudice to the student's rights to challenge the grade.

The date of the public defense is scheduled in the exam calendar of the Faculty.

The scheduling of the evaluation tests cannot be modified, unless there is an exceptional and duly justified reason why an evaluation act cannot be carried out. In this case, the people responsible for the degrees, after consulting the teachers and the affected students, will propose a new schedule within the corresponding school period (art. 115.1 Calendar of evaluation activities, UAB Academic Regulations)
