Methodology

The methodological approach is the principle of the variety of methodological strategies. It must facilitate active participation and learning of the students. In this sense, online and face to face keynote sessions will arise, and some activities to work in small groups using cooperative learning and self-employment will be strengthened. The teacher has to support students in this methodological approach, providing some resources to mediate their learning process. The tutorials will be considered as a fundamental part in this methodological approach.

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.

Assessment

The evaluation is continuous and based on a test that will weigh 50% in the final mark and activities / practical work (50% of the final mark). All evidence must obtain a minimum of 5.

The evaluation of the course work is in group while the test is individual. Regarding practical activities into class, their assessment can be individual and/or group.

Students who have done a proper monitoring of the course (assistance and tuition) and still remains some unachieved evidence, they will have the opportunity to pass the subject through a final re-evaluation. In this case, the maximum mark will be a 5. In any case, the re-evaluation will be considered to raise the obtained mark.

If any of the evidence is not finally passed, the course will be failed with the failed qualification.

To pass this course, it is necessary that the student shows a good communication skills, both orally and writing in the activities.

The results of the evaluation of each of the evidence will have to be published in the virtual campus within a maximum period of 15 days, and will have to provide a review date within 10 days of its publication.

According to regulations UAB, plagiarism or copying of any work or written test will be penalized with a 0 mark, losing the possibility to re-evaluate it, both an individual work and group (in this case, all members of the group have a 0). If during the performance of an individual class work, teacher considers that a student is trying to copy or discovers any type of document or device not authorized by the faculty, it will be scored with 0 and the course will be failed.

Attendance at the face-to-face sessions is mandatory, the student must attend a minimum of 80%. Otherwise the evaluation will correspond to a NP.

The treatment of individual cases, questions, suggestions, etc., will deal with the teacher. The evaluation of this subject follows the criteria and guidelines for evaluating the Faculty of Education, under the Agreement of Academic Planning Commission April 28, 2011, June 4, 2014 and May 28, 2015.
