Prerequisites

There are no prerequisites, but it is recommended that Administrative Law I, II and III have been passed.

The subject is taught in Catalan.

Objectives and Contextualisation

The objective of the subject is to know composition and functions developed by local governments. This subject is about the public administration closest to the citizen (municipality, district and province) and, consequently, the administrative level with whom most people relate, both at a private and professional level. We will analyze which organs make up this Administration (mayors, councilors, county councilors ...) and what activities they carry out: licensing, road cleaning, authorization of collective activities and parties in municipal or public facilities, management of kindergartens, ...

Methodology

The development of the course will consist of a theoretical-practical exposition of the topics of the program, which will be combined with the resolution of practical cases (preferably in the classroom).

The schedule of the course, with the dates of the evaluable activities, is located in the Virtual Campus.

The subject is taught face-to-face.

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.
