Objectives and Contextualisation

In this subject, we aim to raise students' awareness of oral and written expression techniques in French through the critical analysis of audiovisual and written documents of different types in the current French language. The linguistic and argumentative resources will be analyzed so that they can use them in their oral and written productions. Emphasis will be placed on the characteristics of the oral and written documents of the academic field.

By the end of the course, level B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages should have been reached.

Competences

English and French

- Apply the techniques of French oral and written expression corresponding to different levels of competence.
- Develop critical thinking and reasoning and knowing how to communicate effectively both in your mother tongue and in other languages.
- Respect the diversity and plurality of ideas, people and situations.
- Students must be capable of communicating information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialised and non-specialised audiences.
- Students must develop the necessary learning skills in order to undertake further training with a high degree of autonomy.

Assessment

Assessment:

50% of the final mark consists of several assignments throughout the course.

50% of the final course grade is based on a final written exam (22.5%), a final oral presentation (22.5%) and a final grammar test (5%).

Procedure for reviewing grades awarded: For each evaluation activity, students have a week to review the qualifications from when the results are made public.

In the event of a student committing any irregularity that may lead to a significant variation in the grade awarded to an assessment activity, the student will be given a zero for this activity, regardless of any disciplinary process that may take place. In the event of several irregularities in assessment activities of the same subject, the student will be given a zero as the final grade for this subject.

Special cases: French-speaker students must meet the same conditions of assessment than the rest of students. Responsibility for the follow-up of training and assessment activities falls exclusively on the student.

"No available": A final mark of "No available" can only be obtained if the student has completed a maximum of 40% of the course assessment.

Reassessment: Only students who have passed at least 66% of the course evaluation are eligible for reassessment. Reassessment consists of a final oral and/or written exam. The assignments and homework exercises are excluded from reassessment.

In the event that tests or exams cannot be taken onsite, they will be adapted to an online format made available through the UAB's virtual tools (original weighting will be maintained). Homework, activities and class participation will be carried out through forums, wikis and/or discussion on Teams or equivalent, etc. Lecturers will ensure that students are able to access these virtual tools, or will offer them feasible alternatives.
