Use of Languages

Principal working language: catalan (cat)
Some groups entirely in English: No
Some groups entirely in Catalan: No
Some groups entirely in Spanish: No

Prerequisites

No specific prior knowledge is required to complete the course.

Objectives and Contextualisation

- Recognize the different historical stages and stylistic tendencies in audiovisual creation.
- Reflect and innovate about the different tendencies in contemporary audiovisual creation.
- Know and apply the principal audiovisual analysis methodologies.
- Apply in a practical way (in various audiovisual projects) the theoretical knowledge acquired.
- Acquire essential skills for the creation of the sonic and musical section of an audiovisual project.

Competences

Musicology

- Apply technological and informatic media (internet, data bases, specific editing software and sound processing, etc.) to the discipline of musicology.
- Critically analyse musical works from any of the points of view of the discipline of musicology.
- Define relevant musicological research topics and manage the appropriate methods and sources to carry out the research.
- Developing critical thinking and reasoning and communicating them effectively both in your own and other languages.
- Identify and compare the different channels of reception and consumption of music in society and in culture in each period.
- Producing innovative and competitive proposals in research and professional activity.
- Recognise the role of music in current society, its function in performances, its relationship with audio-visual culture, technology and informatics, and with leisure and cultural enterprises.

- Relate musical creations with their different contexts, differentiating between the social functions of music, its roles and that of the musician in society and in relation to other artistic manifestations.
- Students must be capable of applying their knowledge to their work or vocation in a professional way and they should have building arguments and problem resolution skills within their area of study.
- Students must be capable of collecting and interpreting relevant data (usually within their area of study) in order to make statements that reflect social, scientific or ethical relevant issues.
- Students must be capable of communicating information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialised and non-specialised audiences.
- Students must develop the necessary learning skills to undertake further training with a high degree of autonomy.
- Students must have and understand knowledge of an area of study built on the basis of general secondary education, and while it relies on some advanced textbooks it also includes some aspects coming from the forefront of its field of study.

Learning Outcomes

1. Carry out projects and/or give presentations using the appropriate terminology corresponding to the analyses used by images and music as support in their language.
2. Coherently relate the data included in audiovisual documents to argue their discourse.
3. Distinguish between the basic tools to carry out research autonomously.
4. Dominate and relate the technical language of music analysis to the contexts of History of music on a basic level.
5. Identify and evaluate new paths for research.
6. Identify new lines of research according to the changes taking place in audiovisual media.
7. Identify the different musical languages and relate them to the different historical period in which they were developed.
8. Identify the new functions of music in audiovisual media.
9. Recognise the different functions of audi-visual discourse, staying up to date with new analytical methods.
10. Relate and argue in a coherent and ordered manner the projects of the subject with the rudimentary knowledge of musicology.
11. Relate images to music analysing their social functions and the relationship between music and images in a cultural environment.
12. Use Spanish, Catalan and English bibliography to support the discourse.
13. Use different technological and computer methods as support for projects and analysis.

Content

BLOCK OF HISTORY.

1. Beginnings of cinema and sound processes during the silent film era.
2. First years of sound cinema.
3. The classic soundtrack. The Hollywood of the 30s and 40s.
4. Plurality of tendencies. 50's and 60's
5. Rock and electronic music.
6. Videoclip
7. Videogame
8. New trends

BLOCK of ANALYSIS.

1. Analytical models of film music.
2. Functions of music in the cinema
3. Basic analytical concepts for films
4. Music functions of videoclips, video games, and new audiovisual formats.
5. Practical analysis exercises.

BLOCK of AUDIOVISUAL CREATION.

1. Performing exercises with various techniques of musical creation for the audiovisual.
2. Creation of an audiovisual sound project.

Methodology

The first block of the subject will consist of theoretical sessions in master-class format.

The second block will be configured from sessions where the theory and practice will be combined, carrying out specific analysis and expositions during the classes.

The third block will be eminently practical. During the sessions, the students will carry out two projects to create the sonic and musical part of two visual fragments.

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.

Activities

Title	Hours	ECTS	Learning Outcomes
Type: Directed
Block of Audiovisual Creation - On-site lessons	23	0.92	5, 3, 4, 1, 7, 8, 6, 11, 13
Block of History - On-site lessons	30	1.2	5, 3, 4, 2, 10, 11, 12
Block of analysis - On-site lessons	22	0.88	4, 1, 7, 8, 6, 9, 11, 13
Type: Supervised
Individual or group mentoring sessions	4	0.16
Presentation of the work's results	3	0.12	5, 3, 4, 13
Type: Autonomous
Creation and writting of the proposed works	25	1	3, 4, 1, 2, 10
Organization of notes and class material	15	0.6	3, 4, 6, 12, 13
Study of the course matter	25	1	5, 3, 7, 8, 11, 12

Assessment

In each section, you must obtain a minimum grade of 4/10. The student cannot pass the course if he/she does not reach this minimum grade in each evaluation element. To pass the course, the student must obtain an average of 5/10.

During the course, the following evaluable activities will be carried out:

1. Block of History: there will be a written test of the theoretical contents.
2. Block of Analysis: there will be a written test with the theoretical contents, with a weight of 8 (out of 10) of the present Block. In this Block, students are also expected to participate in practical exercises in class, that will weight 2 points of the Block's qualification.

3. Block of Audiovisual Creation: the quality of the projects will be qualified concerning the items worked in class.

In the event that tests or exams cannot be taken onsite, they will be adapted to an online format made available through the UAB's virtual tools (original weighting will be maintained). Homework, activities and class participation will be carried out through forums, wikis and/or discussion on Teams, etc. Lecturers will ensure that students are able to access these virtual tools, or will offer them feasible alternatives.

In case of partial failure of the tasks, the student may only opt for the retake of 2 of the evaluation items, on the date set by the Faculty, providing that has obtained a minimum average of 3,5/10. The maximum grade in the retake exams and tasks is a 5/10.

The fact that the student delivers one of the tasks or present one of the written tests, will consist of an on-site event. Therefore, only the student who has not made any evaluation test during the course may be considered as "non evaluable."

The fact of presenting two of the works or tests will be an "in-site" event in the course. Therefore, only the student who has not made any evaluation test during the sessions or has solely presented one. In the event of a student committing any irregularity that may lead to a significant variation in the grade awarded to an assessment activity, the student will be given a zero for this activity, regardless of any disciplinary process that may take place. In the event of several irregularities in assessment activities of the same subject, the student will be given a zero as the final grade for this subject.
