Assessment

Assessment activities	Description	Value
Critical essay	The work will have to demonstrate the reading of the bibliography and the capacity for critical reflection. The teacher will propose the topics.	30%
Presentation	The presentation (face-to-face or virtual) will be prepared in group. It must be about a topic related to the content of the subject, which must have been agreed with the teacher.	30%
Final exam	The exam will evaluate the theoretical and practical contents that will have been studied throughout the semester and will have a mixed format that will include: test questions, reflection questions and text analysis. The teacher will indicate the date of the exam at the beginning of the course.	40%

- The final mark will be the average of the marks of the three assessment activities. In order to pass the course it is necessary to obtain at least an average grade of 5.
- At the time of each evaluation activity, the teacher will inform the students of the procedure and the date of revision of the grades.
- Students will receive a Failing grade if they have not submitted one of the assessment activities.
- Students will receive the grade of Not assessed as long as they have not submitted two or more of the assessment activities.
- Students who obtain a final grade of less than 5 can take remedial exam if they have attended at least 2 of the 3 assessment activities.
- A good command of the oral and written language is required. Spelling and grammatical errors will discount 0.25 each one.
- In the event that tests or exams cannot be taken onsite, they will be adapted to an online format made available through the UAB's virtual tools (original weighting will be maintained). Homework, activities and class participation will be carried out through forums, wikis and/or discussion on Teams, etc. Lecturers will ensure that students are able to access these virtual tools, or will offer them feasible alternatives.
- In the event of a student committing any irregularity that may lead to a significant variation in the grade awarded to an assessment activity, the student will be given a zero for this activity, regardless of any disciplinary process that may take place. In the event of several irregularities in assessment activities of the same subject, the student will be given a zero as the final grade for this subject.
