Use of Languages

Principal working language: catalan (cat)
Some groups entirely in English: No
Some groups entirely in Catalan: Yes
Some groups entirely in Spanish: No

Prerequisites

It is required for the students to have an excellent oral and written command of the Catalan language and it is also necessary for them to master the associated prescriptive grammar.

It is also important for the students to be acquainted with the contents of lexical morphology (word formation) and basic syntax, which were dealt with during the first-year subjects devoted to descriptive grammar.

Objectives and Contextualisation

The subject of Lexis and Grammar consists of the study of the relations between the lexicon and the syntax of Catalan. This course is part of the set of compulsory subjects included in "Catalan language: synchrony and diachrony".

MAIN GOALS:

- to be capable of analyzing basic syntactic structures
- to be capable of relating the properties of the lexicon with the form of syntactic structures
- to be capable of distinguishing which aspects of lexical meaning are relevant to grammar and which are not
- to be capable of analyzing the syntactic and semantic properties of different types of predicates and argument structures
- to be capable of analyzing the syntactic and semantic properties of idioms and other lexicalized expressions of Catalan
- to be capable of analyzing the syntactic and semantic properties of word formation (derivation and compounding) of Catalan
- to be capable of distinguishing, by using a lexical theory, which words are (im)possible

Competences

- Act with ethical responsibility and respect for fundamental rights, diversity and democratic values.
- Analyse the phonetic, phonological, morphological, syntactic, lexical and semantic properties of the Catalan language, its evolution over time and its present structure.
- Assess gender inequalities when acting in this field of knowledge.
- Critically read and interpret texts.

- Demonstrate a mastery of the rules of the Catalan language, its linguistic bases and all its application in the academic and professional fields.
- Innovate in the methods and processes of this area of knowledge in response to the needs and wishes of society.
- Produce written work and oral presentations that are effective and framed in the appropriate register.
- Students must be capable of collecting and interpreting relevant data (usually within their area of study) in order to make statements that reflect social, scientific or ethical relevant issues.
- Students must be capable of communicating information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialised and non-specialised audiences.
- Students must develop the necessary learning skills to undertake further training with a high degree of autonomy.

Learning Outcomes

1. Analyse linguistic structures.
2. Analyse the most problematic phonetic, phonological, morphological, syntactic, lexical and semantic properties of the present-day language.
3. Analyse the principles of lexical semantics that affect the internal structure of words and their syntactic combination.
4. Describe the combinatory processes for creating linguistic units.
5. Distinguish between grammatical gender and natural gender.
6. Gain a greater capacity for reading, interpreting and critically analysing literary and linguistic texts.
7. Identify and describe the processes of inflection, derivation, composition and lexicalisation.
8. Identify principal and secondary ideas and express them using correct language.
9. Interpret texts in depth and provide standpoints from which to analyse them critically.
10. Make appropriate use of the knowledge acquired in order to collect data and handle documentary sources in the study of Catalan language and literature.
11. Produce written work and oral presentations that are effective and framed in the appropriate register.
12. Respect the opinions, values, behaviour and customs of others.
13. Use technological resources (digital and audiovisual) to acquire knowledge and apply it in language and literature.
14. Work self-sufficiently on the synchronic and diachronic study of Catalan language and literature.
15. Write text commentaries from a critical standpoint.

Content

According to the set of subjects included in "Catalan language: synchrony and diachrony", the contents to be dealt with in the Lexis and Grammar subject are the following ones:

- o Syntax as a projection from the lexicon
- o Categorial selection and semantic selection
- o Argument structure and types of predicates
- o Lexical aspect and grammatical aspect
- o Syntactic and semantic properties of derivation and compounding

Methodology

There will be a combination of lectures with some exercises, discussion, and analyses of phenomena.

Students will find all information on the Virtual Campus: the description of the activities, teaching materials, and any necessary information for the proper follow-up of the subject. In case of a change of teaching modality for health reasons, teachers will make readjustments in the schedule and methodologies..

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.

Assessment

The evaluation will be based on the following activities:

- (a) Final exam: 50%
- (b) Lexicogrammatical analysis exercises: 20%
- (c) Essay: 20%
- (d) Other complementary activities: 10%

The teacher will inform students about the procedure and dates for reviewing grades. The minimum grade to pass the course is 5.

Re-assessment for this subject will consist of a test, which will stand for 50%. For the student to be able to do this test, the following two conditions are required: (i) having obtained an average overall grade that is equal to or higher than 3.5 and having being assessed wrt 2/3 parts of the subject. The maximum overall grade to be obtained from the re-assessment test is 5.

In the event that the student commits any irregularity that may lead to a significant change in the grade of an assessment act, this assessment act will be graded with 0, regardless of the disciplinary process that may be instructed. In the event of several irregularities in the evaluation acts of the same subject, the final grade for this subject will be 0.

In the event that tests or exams cannot be taken onsite, they will be adapted to an online format made available through the UAB's virtual tools (original weighting will be maintained). Homework, activities and class participation will be carried out through forums, wikis and/or discussion on Teams, etc. Lecturers will ensure that students are able to access these virtual tools, or will offer them feasible alternatives.
