Objectives and Contextualisation

The Module 2 program links with Module 1 and constitutes the second cornerstone of the Master as far as the introduction to research is concerned. The program of this training module aims to introduce new and fresh perspectives on the study of a set of long-scope and varied issues, from the conceptual as well as spatial and temporal points of view.

Competences

- Communicate and justify conclusions clearly and unambiguously to both specialist and non-specialist audiences.
- Continue the learning process, to a large extent autonomously.
- Find links between concepts and knowledge in different areas of art history that previously had not been observed.
- Show mastery of language, expression and rhetorical devices in the preparation and presentation of research projects and professional tasks.

- Use acquired knowledge as a basis for originality in the application of ideas, often in a research context.
- Work in interdisciplinary teams. Master the use of language, expression and rhetorical resources in drawing up and delivering presentations on research, projects and professional tasks.

Learning Outcomes

1. Communicate and justify conclusions clearly and unambiguously to both specialist and non-specialist audiences.
2. Continue the learning process, to a large extent autonomously.
3. Find links between the artistic manifestations of different periods, verify their connections to artistic movements, currents of thought and places, and determine possible interdisciplinary connections.
4. Obtain more advanced knowledge of art history, artistic thought and the audiovisual arts.
5. Show mastery of language, expression and rhetorical devices in the preparation and presentation of research projects and professional tasks.
6. Use acquired knowledge as a basis for originality in the application of ideas, often in a research context.
7. Work in interdisciplinary teams. Master the use of language, expression and rhetorical resources in drawing up and delivering presentations on research, projects and professional tasks.

Assessment

Class attendance and active participation: 20 %

Preparation of an oral presentation, of approximately 20 minutes, of a topic related to one of the themes of the Module 2 program: 40%. At the beginning of the course, the student must choose the theme that he wants to work on for the oral presentation. The choice is free, but the student has to consult the specialist teacher in the chosen field to know if the subject fits with the contents of the module. For the preparation of the oral presentation, the student will have the tutorization of the module teacher specialized in the chosen subject. The qualification of the presentation will be agreed among all the teachers of the Module. The correctness and quality of the presentation, the originality and difficulty of the subject, the suitability of the sources used for its preparation and the degree of personal development of the subject, will be assessed.

Delivery of an essay on a chosen subject : 40%

Second chance examination:

The student could submit a second chance examination of the papers with a rating inferior to 5, with the exception of the oral presentation.

Papers review procedure:

During the evaluative process, the lecturers will inform students (Moodle) of the papers review procedure.

The Student will be rated as 'Not assessable' if he/she has not delivered more than 30 % of the evaluation work.

In case of plagiarism:

In the event of a student committing any irregularity that may lead to a significant variation in the grade awarded to an assessment activity, the student will be given a zero for this activity, regardless of any disciplinary process that may take place. In the event of several irregularities in assessment activities of the same subject, the student will be given a zero as the final grade for this subject.
