Methodology

The teaching methodology is based on students work with the main goal of getting needed competences for understanding and applying the law which is studied. Teachers are going to hold students in this task and is going to provide necessary tools as well in order to get competences with success. The development of the subject and the students formation is based in the next kind of activities:

1.- Teach-directed activities:

Theoretical classes: Teachers are going to explain the essential and basic principles for understanding the legal and jurisprudential frame.

Seminars: Teachers and students solve the tax basic problems with the completion of practical cases. The comprehension and critical application of the law and jurisprudence related with the topics taught in theoretical classes is the base of this task. These activities may be a plurality of actions as such activities of debate on the thematic given based on the reality and group work in classroom on recommended materials. The attendance to these seminars is compulsory.

2.- Supervised activities:

Tutorials

3.- Autonomous activities:

The students must organize their time and effort autonomously, both individually as in groups. It involves activities such as search of appropriate literature and jurisprudence for the resolution of practical cases, exercises proposed by teachers, study activity by overcoming the evaluation tasks and consultations in tutorial to the teachers.

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.
