Methodology

Our teaching approach and assessment procedures may be altered if public health authorities impose new restrictions on public gatherings for COVID-19.

During the theoretical sessions, the active and reflexive participation of the students will be encouraged. Students will also be encouraged to work cooperatively and autonomously through theoretical and practical work, presentations, academic tutorials, etc. Students must be able to obtain information and broaden their knowledge through various sources in order to deepen the contents of the subject. This work will be guided and tutored by the teacher.

SUPERVISED

- Tutoring and other tutoring activities.

AUTONOMOUS

- Search for auditions.
- Performing tasks of musical analysis and creation.
- Theoretical and practical presentations by students.

DIRECTED

- Exhibitions by the teaching staff on the contents of the program.
- Practical activities of listening, analysis and musical creation.

Our teaching approach and assessment procedures may be altered if public Health authorities impose new restrictions on public gatherings for COVID-19.

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.
