Teachers

Nicholas Livingston Spengler

Prerequisites

1. Prior to do this subject, it is highly recommended that students have taken the following subjects: "Introducció a la literatura anglesa" from the First Year and "Literatura del Romanticisme britànic" from the Second Year - First Semester.
2. It is necessary to have a C2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: Learning, Teaching and Assessment. "A C2 level of English allows students to: understand with ease virtually everything heard or read; summarize information from different spoken and written sources, reconstruct arguments and accounts in a coherent presentation; express themselves spontaneously, very fluently and precisely, differentiating finer shades of meaning even in the most complex situations.

Objectives and Contextualisation

1. This subject fosters the analysis, debate and interpretation of fiction, essays and poetry written in the United States during the 19th century with a brief outlook at literature produced under the colonial period.
2. The academic preparation deriving from this subject is essential for all remaining subjects within the degree relating to US literature and culture.
3. On successfully completing 19th century American Literature, students will be able to: show a good level of reading comprehension and analysis of American literature; produce written analyses of literary texts studied in class; manage secondary bibliography and databases; express an informed opinion on the texts studied throughout this course

Methodology

Sessions will be organized around close reading of the texts. A historical, social and cultural context of nineteenth century America provided in class (or on Moodle) will reinforce the textual analysis. Texts will be discussed in class (or on Moodle), so it is PARAMOUNT for students to have read the texts conscientiously before class sessions. Students are required to PARTICIPATE ACTIVELY in class discussions.

The teaching methodology and the evaluation proposed in the guide may undergo some modification subject to the onsite teaching restrictions imposed by health authorities.

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.

Activities

Title	Hours	ECTS	Learning Outcomes
Type: Directed
Lectures, readings and debates	50	2	1, 7, 2, 3, 4, 6
Type: Supervised
Writing academic texts, assessment activities in the classroom	25	1	1, 7, 2, 4, 5, 6
Type: Autonomous
Reading and studying	50	2	7, 8, 10, 11, 4

Assessment

Assessment is based on:

- Academic essay = 45% - Date: week 5-7 April.
- Exam = 45% - Date: week 31May-2 June.
- Forum Participation = 10% (There will be a specific deadline for each forum contribution required)

Please, note:

- All the subjects in this degree follow continuous assessment.
- All the exercises are COMPULSORY.
- The submission of either the paper or the exam invalidates the student to get a final mark of "No Avaluable".
- The student's command of English will be taken into account when marking all exercises and for the final mark. It will count as 25% of this mark for all the exercises.
- On carrying out each assessment activity, lecturers will inform students (on Moodle) of the procedures to be followed for reviewing all grades awarded, and the date on which such a review will take place.

RE-ASSESSMENT CONDITIONS:

- The reassessment exam is a two-hour content-synthesis test scheduled by the Faculty.
- The student must previously have completed two thirds of the exercises in the continuous assessment.

- Students whose final average mark is 3,5 or higher can go to reassessment.
- The reassessment exam is only awarded a pass/fail mark. The maximum grade than can be obtained through re-assessment is 5.
- Students cannot attend the reassessment exam to improve their marks.
- Forums cannot be reassessed.
- If the student can't attend the exam because s/he is sick, they will have to agree on an alternative date with the teacher.

VERY IMPORTANT : Partial or total plagiarising will immediately result in a FAIL (0) for the plagiarised exercise (first-year students) or the WHOLE subject (second-, third- and fourth-year students). PLAGIARISING consists of copying text from unacknowledged sources -whether this is part of a sentence or a whole text - with the intention of passing it off as the student's own production. It includes cutting and pasting from internet sources, presented unmodified in the student's own text. Plagiarising is a SERIOUS OFFENCE. Students must respect authors' intellectual property, always identifying the sources they may use; they must also be responsible for the originality and authenticity of their own texts.

In the event of a student committing any irregularity that may lead to a significant variation in the grade awarded to an assessment activity, the student will be given a zero for this activity, regardless of any disciplinary process that may take place. In the event of several irregularities in assessment activities of the same subject, the student will be given a zero as the final grade for this subject.
