To pass the subject, it is essential to fine-tune the prepared repertoire reading section.

Any student who does not have a minimum grade of 3 in each of the tests will not be considered approved.

Only those students who have taken all the tests will have the right to access the reevaluation, and only the test or tests that have been suspended must be retrieved. Those students who have not taken any of the previous evaluable tests will not have the right to reevaluation.

Those students who have attended the two written tests will have the right to access to the re-evaluation. The students who have not been presented in one or both of the previous evaluable tests will not be entitled to re-assessment.

Students will be considered "non-evaluable" in the following cases:

- The student has not attended one of the evaluable parts
- The student has not appeared in any of the evaluable parts

In the event of several irregularities in assessment activities of the same subject, the student will be given a zero as the final grade for this subject.
