Gender perspective

In this subject:

- Classes include a gender perspective to promote equality between women and men and avoid producing gender stereotypes.
- Strategies to promote the participation of women in the classroom are used and they promote equal gender relations.
- Knowledge of the social and cultural differences between men and women and gender inequalities in the structure of society and in cultural production is offered.
- Knowledge is also offered on sexual and emotional diversity, gender identity and expression, knowledge and reflection on feminist thought and movements, the history of movements for womern's rights, its evolution and critical repercussions in society, culture and philosophical and scientific thought, and the knowledge of the values of gender equality in professional practices.
- Non-sexist and non-androcentric language is used in written, visual and audiovisual documents and other class materials. Since this is a langauge class specific resources are also provided in the language being studied for non-sexist language and critical reflection is encouraged on non-sexist language and its uses.

Methodology

Imparted language
The classes will be taught in French

Methodology

The methodology is basically interactive. Students have to put into practice their language knowledge in order to fulfil a series of tasks (spoken and written) in both a general context and in the field of hospitality. In other words, the emphasis is on the learning process rather than master classes by the teaching staff.

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.

Assessment

Continuous assessment option

Students must have attended at least $80 \%$ of their classes in order to be included in the continuous assessment process.

Continuous assessment activities: 60\%

Writing activities. Between two and five writing tasks are performed. Students may be asked to rewrite their texts to improve on the first version.

Portfolio. The portfolio contains between six and eight tasks, covering the four language skills. These may be done at home or in class. The following are examples of these tasks.

Transformation exercises
Mini tests

Exercises

Information search

Production of documents
Oral activities. Over the year, between one and two speaking activities will be conducted. These may be individual or group activities. Depending on the level, they could be monologues, dialogues, presentations, etc.

Tests. One or more tests are held during the year, consisting of a writing test and/or a speaking test.
Attitude and participation. Students' degree of effort, attitude, and participation are assessed.

Final continuous assessment test: 40\%. This final test assesses the two skills of writing and speaking. This test is on the same day as the final single assessment exam.

To pass the course an overall mark of $60 \%$ must be obtained (continuous assessment activities plus final test.) Students who have failed are entitled to a reassessment.

Reassessment

In order to be eligible for reassessment, it is necessary to obtain at least a 3.5 in the set of evidence included in the continuous assessment (continuous activities and final test).

Reassessment involves retaking the parts of the final test in which their scores were below the overall average mark, in other words, the parts in which they obtained scores below $60 \%$.

Single-assessment option

The single assessment to pass the course is based on the completion of a final exam. This final exam assesses the two language skills of writing and speaking. This exam is on the same day as the final continuous assessment test.

To pass the final exam, and therefore the course itself, the following is required:
a minimum mark of $50 \%$ must be obtained in each skill (each part of the exam).
An overall average grade of $60 \%$ is required.
Students who have failed are entitled to a reassessment.

Reassessment

The reassessment exam, when the student is evaluated through a single assessment, will be the same as that of the rest of the students: that is, in order to be eligible for reassessment exam, it is necessary to obtain at least a 3.5 in the set of evidence included in the single assessment.

Reassessment involves retaking the parts of the final exam in which their scores were below the overall average mark, in other words, the parts in which they obtained scores below $60 \%$.

Changing the exam date

Students who cannot take the exam on the set dates due to health, work (trips or other similar obligations) or on compassionate grounds may ask their teacher for a change of date, supplying any necessary documents, and giving notice of at least seven calendar days except in extreme cases such as accidents. If the request is accepted, the exams must still be taken within the period set by the School of Tourism and Hotel Management.

Further points regarding assessment

No level certificates of any kind are issued.
