The detailed calendar with the content of the different sessions will be exposed on the day of presentation of the subject. It will also be posted on the Virtual Campus where students will be able to find a detailed description of the exercises and practices, the various teaching materials and any information necessary for proper follow-up of the subject.

Methodology

The subject is divided into theoretical and practical sessions. Theoretical sessions consist of presenting the general concepts of the topic and the reflection and debate of the students from the suggested readings. And the practical sessions will include group activities to assimilate the theoretical aspects presented.

Regarding practical sessions, the class will be divided into subgroups to do personalized work with seminar or internship tutors. In these sessions, group exercises will be held, raised in class, directly related to the topics developed in the subject. Thus, the case study method, the resolution of communication problems, and/or the reading, analysis, and sharing of articles that the teacher considers interesting will be implemented. As a culmination of the subject, the students will do a Communication plan of a company/institution. This final work will be done in a group (with the same group formed for the practical sessions). In this way, students will contrast in practice the theoretical knowledge explained in class.

In the virtual campus, students will have links to complementary content for each thematic block. These materials must be read and reviewed in advance both to do the practices and to prepare the final theoretical test.

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.

Assessment

This subject doesn't provide for the single assessment system.

The subject evaluation system is based on the following percentages:

A) 30% Control of knowledge. The control must be passed (5 or more) to pass the subject (essential condition).

B) 30% Execution and presentation of the practical exercises. All the students must sign the practical exercises.

C) 40% Realization of the final practice: Strategic Communication Plan.

$A(30\%) + B(30\%) + C(40\%) = 100\%$ FINAL GRADE OF THE SUBJECT

The calendar will be available on the first day of class. Students will find all information on the Virtual Campus: teaching materials, and any necessary information for the proper follow-up of the subject. In case of a change of teaching modality for health reasons, teachers will make readjustments in the schedule and methodologies.

Re-evaluation

a) According to regulations, in order to participate in the catch-up process, students must have been previously assessed at least 2/3 of the total evaluable activities of the subject.

b) The theory can only be recovered if the student in the exam has obtained less 4.9. The examen will consist of a written test to evaluate theoretical knowledge.

c) The student who has obtained a D in one of the practices either because he has suspended or because he has not presented it (as long as it is for reasons accredited or acceptable by the teaching team) will have the option to present himself to his recovery during the period established ad hoc. The recovery of each practice will consist of the resolution of a case or communication problem in the classroom (day and time to be determined).

d) The final work of the subject (30%) is an evaluable work that cannot be recovered in case of suspension. The reason is because it is practically impossible to carry out another job of these characteristics with the time available to us.

In the case of a second enrolment, students can do a single synthesis exam/assignment that will consist of doing a theoretical exam (50%) and a practical work (50%). The grading of the subject will correspond to the grade of the synthesis exam/assignment.

IMPORTANT

The proposed teaching methodology and evaluation activities may undergo some modifications depending on the health authorities' attendance restrictions.

PLAGIARISM

In the event that the student performs any irregularity that may lead to a significant variation of an evaluation act, this evaluation act will be graded with 0, regardless of the disciplinary process that could be instructed. In the event, that several irregularities occur in the evaluation acts of the same subject, the final grade for this subject will be 0.
