Objectives and Contextualisation

The general objective of this course is set out as follows: "The students of the Degree in Criminology will be able to use the methods and techniques of criminological research to analyze the data and experiences of conflict, crime and control in a given social context. Also, students will be able to evaluate, in a thoughtful and critical way, possible responses, and to expose, with academic rigor, the results of their work."

In this context, the course of Data Sources in Criminology has the following concrete objectives:

- To enable students to use databases on delinquency.
- To be able to evaluate, and reflect critically about different data on crime.
- To reach competence in academic writing.

Competences

- Ability to analyse and summarise.
- Accessing and interpreting sources of crime data.
- Drawing up an academic text.
- Using research methods in social sciences in order to diagnose criminality problems.
- Verbally transmitting ideas to an audience.
- Working autonomously.
- Working in teams and networking.

Learning Outcomes

1. Ability to analyse and summarise.
2. Drawing up an academic text.

Activities and Methodology

Title	Hours	ECTS	Learning Outcomes
Type: Directed
Lectures	19.5	0.78	1, 6, 7, 4
Workshops	19.5	0.78	1, 5, 6, 7, 4
Type: Autonomous
Group and individual work	106	4.24	2, 1, 6, 7, 4

Activities:

In order to reach an adequate learning of the contents of the course, students need to do two types of activities.

Directed activities: which will be done in the classroom, consisting of:

- Lectures given by the teacher, in which the theoretical contents of the course will be examined.
- Seminars and workshops, in which practical activities will be discussed in group.

Autonomus activities. As a complement to the directed activities, students will work individually or in group:

- Group essay. The objective of this essay is that students could analyze a criminological phenomenon through the use of different databases, also presenting its main results in front of an audience.
- Individual work. Students will read texts and make essays to prepare the seminars and exams

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.

Assessment

Continous Assessment Activities

Title	Weighting	Hours	ECTS	Learning Outcomes
Evaluation: Working with data	10%	1	0.04	3, 1, 6, 4
Group essay	30%	1	0.04	3, 2, 5, 7, 4

Individual essays (Methodological exercises)	30%	2	0.08	3, 1, 6, 4
Test theoretical part	30%	1	0.04	1, 6

Evaluation.

The course follows a continuous method of evaluation.

Conditions to be evaluated and pass the course.

Attendance to the whole course is mandatory. In order to pass the course students need to attend to a minimum of 80% of the classes and to deliver all the individual and group evaluable activities planned.

To be evaluated, it is necessary to present at least 2/3 of the programmed activities.

Students need to obtain a minimum grade of 4 in each of the mandatory evaluable activities, and a final mean grade of 5 in the whole course in order to pass.

Evaluable activities.

Individual activities (70%):

- 3 individual essays (30%)
- Practical exercises of the methodological part (Excel) 10%
- Theoretical exam (30%)

Group activities (30%)

- A group academic work using criminological data sources and their PwP presentation (25%). A meeting must be held with the tutor and the draft must be sent before the final version.

Resit

If a student don't reach the minimum mark required, professors will offer the possibility to repeat those activities that do not reach the minimum. To do this, a resit period will be opened and, if necessary, the professor will suggest a way to improve the tasks.

The chance to repeat activities exist only when students have presented the essays in due time, except if the no presentation is due to a major force cause, with the proper justification. If students don't submit an assessment, they will receive a mark of zero except in justified cases.

Fraudulent conducts

Students who are found cheating or attempting to cheat during the exams will receive a mark of 0, losing the right of reassessment.

Plagiarism in essays will be graded as 0 with no reassessment of that particular essay or activity.

Punctuality

Lectures and seminars start on time. Late arrival or leaving the class before its end without proper justification is not permitted.

Single assessment system

It will consist of three exams:

1st) 4 questions on the mandatory readings of the course.

2nd) 1 exercise to show the knowledge on Excel.

3rd) Exercise to show the skills in finding data on crime and justice.
