To achieve the objectives of the subject, the following teaching methodology will be used:

1. Lectures: In these sessions the teacher / s will develop the main concepts and fundamental concepts of the subject. To facilitate their learning and the necessary practical applications will be carried out.
2. Work sessions focused on exercises and / or discussion of practical cases: The methodology of the case will be used, mainly in working groups, to know more about the different theoretical concepts worked in the master classes.
3. Various support activities: In order to bring the student closer to the business world during the course, reading articles and / or specialized magazines will be proposed where news related to the concepts that are worked on to the subject.
4. On-site tutorials: The student will have a few hours where the teachers of the subject will be able to help him / her to solve the doubts that are presented to him in the study of the subject and in the resolution of problems.

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.

Assessment

Continuous Assessment Activities

Title	Weighting	Hours	ECTS	Learning Outcomes
Complementary work	35%	2	0.08	4, 6, 5, 17, 3, 14
Course followment	15%	7.5	0.3	10, 18, 16, 6, 5, 17, 1, 3, 8, 9, 14, 15, 2, 7, 11, 13, 12, 19, 20
Final exam	50%	3	0.12	4, 6, 5, 17, 3, 14

The final grade of the course will be formed by the weighted average of three grades:

1. Follow-up of the course. The correct follow-up of the course requires the attendance to class and the realization of the practical cases and activities programmed during the course for each one of the subjects. All these aspects will result in a grade that will represent 15% of the final grade of the course.

2. Complementary work. Throughout the course there will be a work on a topic that will be raised at the beginning of the course. The grade of the work will represent 35% of the final grade of the course.

3. Final exam. The student will be evaluated based on the overall contents of the subject and the grade of the exam will represent 50% of the final grade of the course. To apply the percentages of 15%, 35% and 50% mentioned above, it will be necessary to get a grade equal to or higher than 4 in this final test. If this is not the case, the student will fail the subject without the opportunity of recuperation.

For those students who in the continuous evaluation of the course have obtained a grade that is equal to or greater than 4 and lower than 5 there will be a recuperation. The professors of the subject will decide the modality of it. The recuperation grade will only have two possible options: Apt or Non-apt. If the student obtains an Apt (suitable) grade, it is considered that he/she has passed the subject with a maximum numerical grade equal to 5. If the student obtains a grade of No apto (Not-suitable), he/she will not pass the subject and the final grade will be equal to the grade obtained before of the recuperation.

A student can only obtain a "Non Presented" to the subject as long as he/she has not participated in the different evaluation activities. Therefore, it is considered that a student who performs some component of continuous evaluation can no longer opt for a "Non Presented".
