a) Theoretical approach

The professor will provide theoretical explanations in a master class format to introduce and engage students in the topics illustrated through the contents of the subject, emphasizing the use of case studies. Visual, textual, and moving image references will be provided as well throughout these lectures.

b) Practical approach

The theoretical lectures will be followed and interspersed with debates and dialogues among students and with the professor. Short exercises and problem-based activities will also be devised so that students apply the knowledge acquired in each block. Subsequently, each learning block will be evaluated in either group or individual activities. Cooperative learning will be particularly encouraged for this approach.

Language in which the subject is taught: Spanish (Tourism Degree) and English (Tourism Degree in English).

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.

Assessment

Continuous Assessment Activities

| Title | Weighting | Hours | ECTS | Learning Outcomes |
|--------------------|-----------|-------|------|-------------------|
| Discussions-Forums | 20% | 2 | 0.08 | 1, 4, 7 |
| Exams | 40% | 4 | 0.16 | 2, 3, 4 |
| Oral presentations | 40% | 12 | 0.48 | 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 7 |

Continuous assessment of this subject:

a) A theoretical exam on current issues, as well as on the topics of the communicative and managerial field developed in class: 40% of the final mark.

b) Practical work proposed throughout the course and delivered within the established deadline: 40% of the final mark.

c) Attitude and active participation in dynamics, forums and sessions: 20%.

A minimum average mark of 5 out of 10 is required to pass the course.

The grade for the subject will be NOT EVALUABLE when the student attends less than half of the assessment activities and/or does not attend the final exam.

1a) Re-assessment of the continuous assessment

A re-assessment is foreseen for students who, having failed the course, have obtained more than 3.5 in the exam.

Single assessment of this subject:

- a) An oral theory exam on topics in the field of communication and management: 40% of the final mark.
- b) Completion of a communication or management-related case study: 40% of the final mark.
- c) Reading and review of one out of three possible resources that the teacher will indicate on the established dates: 20% of the final mark.

In order to pass the course, a minimum average mark of 5 out of 10 must be obtained.

1a) Re-assessment: "The recovery of the subject by single assessment will be the same as that of the rest of the students and in order to take the re-assessment it will be necessary for the student to have obtained at least a 3.5 in the set of evidence of which the single assessment consists".

Note: partial or total plagiarism in any activity or project will imply the non-accreditation of the whole course.
