Prerequisites

At the beginning of the course students should be able to:

- Demonstrate that they are familiar with and understand contrastive aspects of the language combination and the principles of translation methodology.
- Apply this knowledge to solving different kinds of translation problems in non-specialised texts written in Italian which reflect linguistic variation and cultural references, and also in simple specialised texts from various fields.
- Incorporate this knowledge in order to make judgments on questions related to the translation of different kinds of non-specialised texts reflecting linguistic variation and cultural references, as well as simple specialised texts from various fields.

Objectives and Contextualisation

The purpose of this course is to develop the student's abilities to resolve translation problems in specialised texts covering various fields.

All course credits are for translation exercises. At the end of the course students should be able to:

- Understand different specialised text types, with complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects.
- Write different types of texts, using fairly complex constructions, about a wide range of subjects and employing the most common styles and registers.
- Understand different types of spoken Italian about a wide range of subject areas and able to discern variation in accents, styles or registers.

- Demonstrate their knowledge concerning instrumental aspects and documentation, and contrastive problems in the language combination.
- Apply the aforementioned knowledge to resolve translation problems in specialised texts in various specialised fields.
- Incorporate this knowledge in order to make judgments on questions related to translating specialised texts in various specialised fields.
- Provide information, offer ideas, pose problems and offer solutions regarding the translation of specialised texts in various specialised fields.

Observations:

The contents of the subject will be worked in class in a practical way. The students will prepare the exercises or the translations at home or in class and will share them in the classroom, commenting on the problems and translation proposals.

Adherence to the timetable will depend on the pace of work and the needs of the group. The teacher reserves the right to make any changes they deem appropriate.

The practice of translating texts in the classroom will be done from Italian into Catalan and/or Spanish, according to the teacher's instructions. Students may choose to take evaluable tests in the translation language of their choice (Catalan and/or Spanish).

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.

Assessment

Continuous assessment

Students must provide evidence of their progress by completing various tasks and tests. Tasks and tests deadlines will be indicated in the course schedule on the first day of class. The information on assessment activities and their weighting is a guide. The subject's lecturer will provide full information when teaching begins.

Review

When publishing final marks prior to recording them on students' transcripts, the lecturer will provide written notification of a date and time for reviewing assessment activities. Students must arrange reviews in agreement with the lecturer.

Missed/failed assessment activities

Students may retake assessment activities they have failed or compensate for any they have missed, provided that those they have actually performed account for a minimum of 66.6% (two thirds) of the subject's final mark and that they have a weighted average mark of at least 3.5.

The lecturer will inform students of the procedure involved, in writing, when publishing final marks prior to recording them on transcripts. The lecturer may set one assignment per failed or missed assessment activity or a single assignment to cover a number of such activities. Under no circumstances may an assessment activity worth 100% of the final mark be retaken or compensated for.

Classification as "not assessable"

In the event of the assessment activities a student has performed accounting for just 25% or less of the subject's final mark, their work will be classified as "not assessable" on their transcript.

Misconduct in assessment activities

Students who engage in misconduct (plagiarism, copying, personation, etc.) in an assessment activity will receive a mark of "0" for the activity in question. In the case of misconduct in more than one assessment activity, the student involved will be given a final mark of "0" for the subject. Assessment activities in which irregularities have occurred (e.g. plagiarism, copying, impersonation) are excluded from recovery.

Single assessment

This subject may be assessed under the single assessment system in accordance with the terms established in the academic regulations of the UAB and the assessment criteria of the Faculty of Translation and Interpreting.

Students must make an online request within the period established by the faculty and send a copy to the lecturer responsible for the subject, for the record.

Single assessment will be carried out in person on oneday during week 16 or 17 of the semester. The Academic Management Office will publish the exact date and time on the faculty website.

On the day of the single assessment, teaching staff will ask the student for identification, which should be presented as a valid identification document with a recent photograph (student card, DNI/NIE or passport).

Single assessment activities

Single assessment will include a minimum of three assessment activities of different types, as stated in the assessment guidelines.

Grade revision and retake procedures for the subject are the same as those for continual assessment. See the section above in this Study Guide.
