Our teaching approach and assessment procedures may be altered if public Health authorities impose new restrictions on public gatherings for COVID-19.

SUPERVISED ACTIVITIES

Tutorship and other supervised activities.

AUTONOMOUS ACTIVITIES

Searching for materials and developing teaching proposals.

Writing thoughtful essays from reads about music didactics.

CONDUCTED ACTIVITIES

Teacher presentations about the four main contents (see the programme). From examples of music sessions, the teacher will conduct the reflective process in order to discover and understand the core elements of the music education.

Designing and presenting autonomous exercises and activities.

Conducting music activities for the whole group or working in small groups. It includes document analysis, problem solving and case studies, among other learning strategies.

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.

Assessment

Continuous Assessment Activities

Title	Weighting	Hours	ECTS	Learning Outcomes
Analysis of a musical situations (individual task)	20%	0	0	1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 13, 16, 17, 18
Didactic proposal (individual task)	40%	0	0	1, 3, 6, 10, 17, 18
Short activities (discussions, reflections, proposals for activities, etc.)	30%	0	0	6, 9, 11, 13, 14, 15, 16, 18
Works about reads	10%	0	0	5, 8, 11, 12, 13, 14, 16, 18

It is necessary to attend 80% of the classes as this is a practical subject. Attendance allows for the observation and analysis of teaching modeling and the didactic process, which are considered crucial for successfully completing the subject.

It will be specifically valued that the student is a good musical model (singing, playing instruments, dancing, conducting, listening to music), with good expressiveness and musicality, and transmitting the taste and care for the musical result.

The didactic-musical profile must be supported by characteristics when carrying out classroom activities that are essential for being a teacher:

- Responsibility in planning and preparing beforehand what is needed.
- Communication skills, based on a mastery of verbal language, but also non-verbal (body posture, facial expression, etc.) and support tools if applicable.
- Ability to manage the group, being attentive to the existing diversity, and leading activities with assertiveness and empathy.
- Attention to what happens during activities and flexibility to adapt, while controlling the available time.
- Reflection and critical view towards the educational practice carried out.

To average and pass the subject, each of the sections must be approved.

In debates, the degree of participation and the level of reflection in contributions will be valued.

Active attitude and participation during the teaching and learning process are fundamental.

To pass this subject, the student must show, in the proposed activities, good general communicative competence, both orally and in writing, and a good command of the language(s) of instruction as stated in the teaching guide.

For generic aspects, the evaluation will be governed according to the documents found at:

Submission and Reassessment Dates for Main Tasks:

1. Individual Analysis of Musical Situations: a) Teach a song at the school where practices are carried out and perform a written analysis. b) Watch a musical activity and perform a written analysis. Two submissions: last week of October and second week of November. Continuous and single reassessment: February 6. The student must submit the work to be reassessed, both for single and continuous assessment.
2. Reading Work: Reflections, summaries, and conceptual maps. Individual and group. Submission: third week of October. Continuous and single reassessment: February 6. The student must submit the work to be reassessed, both for single and continuous assessment.
3. Design of a Didactic Proposal: Written work. Individual. Submission: last week of November. Continuous and single reassessment: February 6. The student must submit the work to be reassessed, both for single and continuous assessment.
4. Oral Presentation of the Didactic Proposal: In class and with the group-class. Individual. Date: December 5 and 12. Reassessment: not possible.
5. Single Assessment: December 12. All specified works in sections 1, 2, 3, and 4 must be submitted. The same recovery system will be applied as for continuous assessment. The review of the final grade follows the same procedure as for continuous assessment. Below is the weight of the single assessment activities:
  - Analysis of musical situations: 30%
  - Didactic proposal: written work and presentation: 60%
  - Reading work: 10%

Only those tasks that have been failed can be reassessed, and they can only aspire to be passed with a 5 (unless otherwise specified by the teacher).

The deadline for returning, feedback, or grading of assessment activities will not exceed 20 working days after submission.

When the student has not provided sufficient evidence of assessment, the subject will be graded as not assessable, meaning that 100% of the proposed tasks must be submitted.

Copying or plagiarism in any type of assessment activity constitutes a serious academic offense and will be penalized with a 0 as the subject grade, losing the possibility of recovery, whether it is an individual or group work (in which case, all group members will receive a 0).
