Evaluation Activities

The evaluation of the course will consist of three evaluative activities:

Edu-communicative Project: Group work, minimum 3-5 people. The project guidelines will be available on the virtual campus, the practical sessions will be dedicated to working on the edu-communicative projects from the beginning, and the group tutorials will be aimed at monitoring both the design and the development of the project.

Seminar Submissions: The submission will take place either before or after as indicated on the virtual campus.

Exam: At the end of the course, a theoretical exam on the content learned during the semester will be held.

Students have the right to review the evaluation carried out. Once the grades are published, a review tutorial will be scheduled to conduct the same.

RE-EVALUATION

The re-evaluation activity will consist of a theoretical exam that will include aspects from the theoretical sessions, seminars, and concepts worked on in the development of the edu-communicative project.

NOT EVALUABLE

Students who have not submitted any formative activity cannot be evaluated.

PLAGIARISM

If the student commits any irregularity that could lead to a significant variation in the grade of an evaluation act, that evaluation act will be graded with 0, regardless of the disciplinary process that may be initiated. If several irregularities occur in the evaluation acts of the same course, the final grade for that course will be 0. The use of artificial intelligence that is not declared in the submissions will also be considered an irregularity; it is understood to be an additional tool, but if used, its use must be transparent, and it must be agreed upon in advance with the teaching staff if it is appropriate or not for carrying out the corresponding exercise.
