Two thirds of face-to-face teaching will be developed with the full group and one third in seminars in small groups.

The sessions with the whole group will be carried out mainly from master classes focused on the thematic blocks pointed out in the section "contents". The doubts related to the compulsory readings that the students have to do and to the self-learning work will also be clarified.

In the seminars, in-depth activities will be carried out on the topics already discussed, based on a documented analysis of documentary resources (news, academic texts or others). In both cases, current issues will be discussed to update the agenda and identify key elements regarding the evolution of media systems and the advertising and public relations industry. The active participation of students will be encouraged from a critical and argued perspective.

The approach of the subject will incorporate the gender perspective in all possible aspects, from the contents to the methodologies applied to the dynamics of work and student participation in the classroom, so as to facilitate an egalitarian interaction.

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.

The course consists of the following assessment activities:

1. Various exercises related to the questions treated in the seminar, that will suppose 30% of the qualification. Due to their current nature, these evaluation activities will not be recoverable.
2. Intervention in seminars. The intervention of the seminars will be valued qualitatively (10% of the final grade). This evaluation activity will not be recoverable.
3. Two partial examinations on the theoretical contents, each one of which represents 30% of the final qualification, and that are liberatory of matter.

To pass the subject it is necessary to pass these two exams. In the event of a suspension, you can take part in the recovery, as long as you have previously assessed the two midterm exams and at least one of the other two assessment activities.

If one of the two partial exams is not taken the final grade will be "not assessable".

In the event that the retake of one of the two exams is not passed, the final grade of the subject will be the one obtained in this exam (or the average, if both are failed).

Unique assessment

This subject allows you to take the single assessment method, through a motivated application, according to the terms provided for in the academic regulations approved by the Governing Council of 7.7.2022, article 265. The application 'single assessment entails the waiver of continued assessment.

The assessment activities of the single assessment modality will be:

1. An exam on the theoretical content, which represents 50% of the final grade.
2. Several exercises relating to the issues discussed in the seminar, which will account for 30% of the final grade.
3. A paper on the Advertising and Public Relations sector that must be submitted on the same date as the two previous assessment activities and that will be worth 20% of the final grade.

To pass the subject, the exam grade must be equal to or higher than 5, as well as the average grade for all the assessment activities. If the exam is not passed, the final grade for the subject will be that of this exam. The only activity that can be reassessed is the exam on the theoretical content.

Students from the second registration

From the second enrollment onwards, students can choose to be evaluated through a synthesis test, with the option of recovery as long as they have been previously evaluated. The grade of the subject will correspond to the grade of the synthesis test, which will evaluate the theory contents.

It will be understood that students from the second enrollment who do not explicitly communicate (by email and within the deadline announced at the beginning of the course) their evaluation option will take the synthesis test.

Assessment activities calendar

The dates of the evaluation and recovery activities will be announced on the day of the presentation of the subject. The information will also be available on the virtual campus.

Plagiarism
