Prerequisites

There are no prerequisites

Objectives and Contextualisation

The objective of this course is to present different linguistic tools and resources, both digital and on paper, that help students to improve their knowledge of the Catalan language. At the end of the course, students must be able to apply the knowledge acquired to the detection and solution of linguistic errors present in texts extracted from oral and written media in an efficient manner, as well as the composition and improvement of their own texts.

Competences

Journalism

- Express oneself fluently and effectively in the two official languages, both orally and in writing.
- Manage time effectively.
- Research, select and arrange in hierarchical order any kind of source and useful document to develop communication products.
- Students can apply the knowledge to their own work or vocation in a professional manner and have the powers generally demonstrated by preparing and defending arguments and solving problems within their area of study.
- Students must be capable of communicating information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialised and non-specialised audiences.
- Take sex- or gender-based inequalities into consideration when operating within one's own area of knowledge.

Learning Outcomes

1. Build texts in the two official languages that adapt to the structures of journalistic language.
2. Communicate using language that is not sexist or discriminatory.
3. Demonstrate a command of the official languages and their communication resources in order to produce oral and written texts fluently, efficiently and accurately.
4. Express oneself correctly, both orally and in writing.
5. Find the substance and relevance in journalistic texts, in the two official languages, in any format to detect correct forms of oral and written expression.
6. Manage time effectively.
7. Research, select and arrange in hierarchical order any kind of source and useful document to develop communication products.
8. Students can apply the knowledge to their own work or vocation in a professional manner and have the powers generally demonstrated by preparing and defending arguments and solving problems within their area of study.
9. Students must be capable of communicating information, ideas, problems and solutions to both specialised and non-specialised audiences.

Content

1. Introduction to paper and digital linguistic tools and resources. Wich and why
2. Grammars, dictionaries and style books. Other reference works
3. The main doubts in the use of oral and written language
4. The journalistic language of the past and the present

15 minutes of a class will be reserved, within the calendar established by the center / degree, for the completion I

Annotation: Within the schedule set by the centre or degree programme, 15 minutes of one class will be reserved for students to evaluate their lecturers and their courses or modules through questionnaires.

Assessment

Continous Assessment Activities

Title	Weighting	Hours	ECTS	Learning Outcomes
Controls	90%	4	0.16	1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9
Specific activities	10%	2	0.08	1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9

The evaluation will be based on three evidence types:

- 1) Attendance and active participation in class (10%)
- 2) Two written tests (35% + 35%)
- 3) Oral presentation (20%)

At the beginning of each evaluation activity, the teacher will inform the students about review of grade procedure and date. The minimum grade to pass the course is 5.

If a student has been evaluated of less than 2/3 of the total grade of the course, he will receive the consideration of "non-assessable".

To qualify for the second-chance test, two conditions must be met: (1) the student must have been evaluated of at least 2/3 of the total grade of the course and (2) he must have a continuous evaluation mark between 3.5 and 4.9. The maximum second-chance test rating is 5. The second-change text will consist of a global test on the contents of the subject.

Single assesment

The evaluation will be based on three evidence types:

- 1) Written tests (40%)
- 2) Practical activities test (40%)
- 3) Written work (20%)

To qualify for the second-chance test, two conditions must be met: (1) the student must have been evaluated of at least 2/3 of the total grade of the course and (2) he must have a continuous evaluation mark between 3.5 and 4.9. The maximum second-chance test rating is 5. The second-change text will consist of a global test on the contents of the subject.
